FOREWORD

I exist either as a shadow or as a spirit. As a shadow, my meaning is reflected by brick walls, walls that were built to harbor more than I could mean. Yes, as a shadow, I could only express a silhouette, some inky pattern stretching itself across the lawn, only to melt away as day flickers out to night. But, West, you have redeemed me from being a mere shadow. I am the spirit of your own illumination.

I was kindled last September, like a boisterous fantasy, when crackling leaves were beginning to singe summer away. Remember how I burst into vivid flames of friendships, of new teachers, of new scopes of study, of football, of cheerleaders.

Now my year is almost over. No, it is not over, for I am West's spirit, never to be concluded. You will be with me forever, since your memories are my dreams.

I am the teachers who offer ability and sincerity. I am the learning that yields wisdom, and hope, and excitement.

I am especially each student. We worked together at West. Some of us tried to do our best and did. Some of us could give ourselves to the vastness of the challenge. I shall do better for West. It is proud to accomplish.

I am all the hustle and bustle that echoed over my pride. I am all the interests at West that have given me my Western vim, from the French Club to the S.R.A.

I am the spirit that made West a good sport. I am the players who tried for me under the watching sun and the cold, brittle stars. I am the cheerleaders who gave me assurance of victory.

I am the joy of the Homecoming Queen. I am the seniors who made West's Superlatives. I am graduation, surging from my spirit to the world.

Take these pages to mind and heart. As you lived them, you made me great, as West's spirit will always be.

MRS. JESSIE HOOPER

DEDICATION

To a gracious teacher, whose abilities have inspired us, whose friendship has blessed us, whose instruction has captivated us . . . to a teacher of knowledge and fidelity, we the 1963 Westerner Staff, dedicate this annual, hoping that it may express and verify our admiration for her service and sincerity.

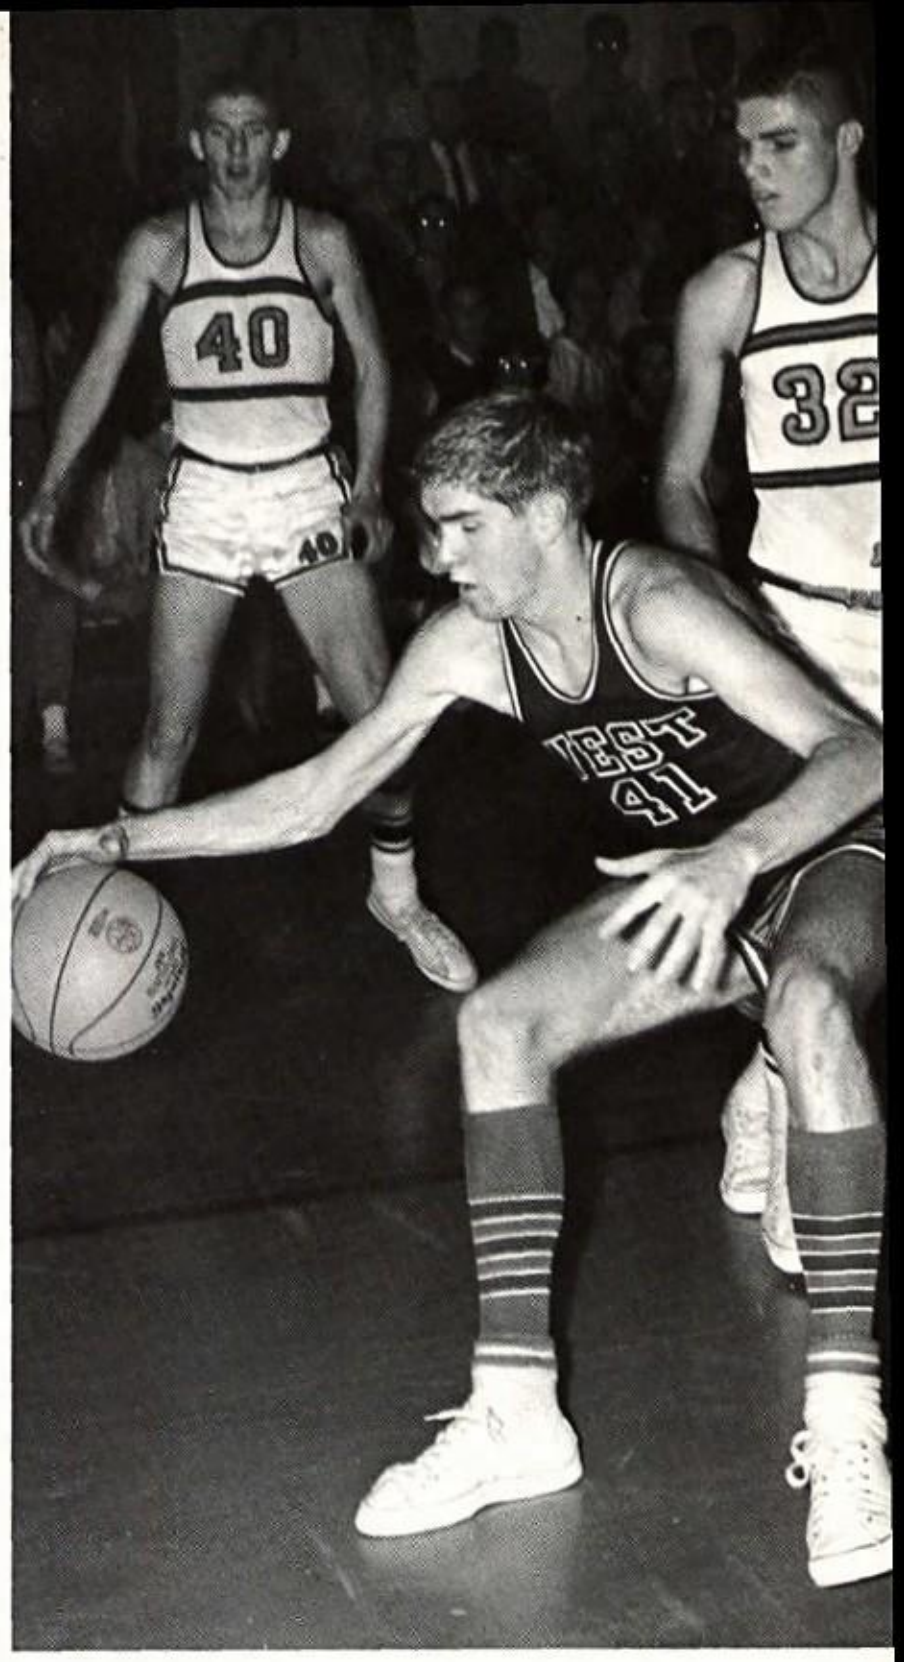
She illustrates the past, transporting our attention far away to a realm of vivid dreams, that teach us that the meaning of great literature is the significance of great ideas. By causing the past to be less remote, she causes the present to be less obscure. And if we envision the Three Weird Sisters some dingy evening, we can say, "Here are the witches I read about in Macbeth." But we know who taught us the why's and therefore's and who fathomed those unruly phantoms.

Interest is her direction and our ambush. As she read Burns one day this year, we became entangled in the marching words and enchanted by the witty meaning. When she reads, her audience hears a vision. Her own wit is wonderful.

How is it possible to thank a teacher, who has merged grammar, friendship, English, Literature, and rewarding insight into one course? May this, the 1963 Westerner, be merely a token of our gratitude to you, Mrs. Hooper, for your time, your patience, your work, and your great precision.

Hail Mrs. Line!!!

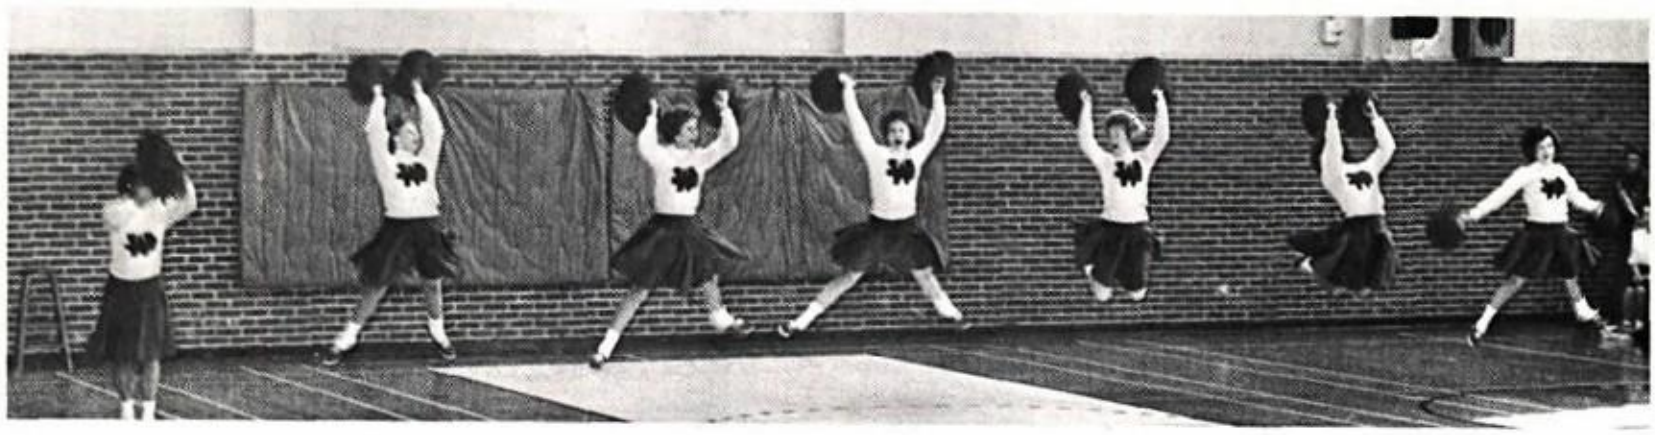
Like cool man.



400, 401, 402, 403 . . .

Let's eat!

"All for West High stand up and holler!"



Which cheerleader doesn't know the cheer?

The day the rains came.

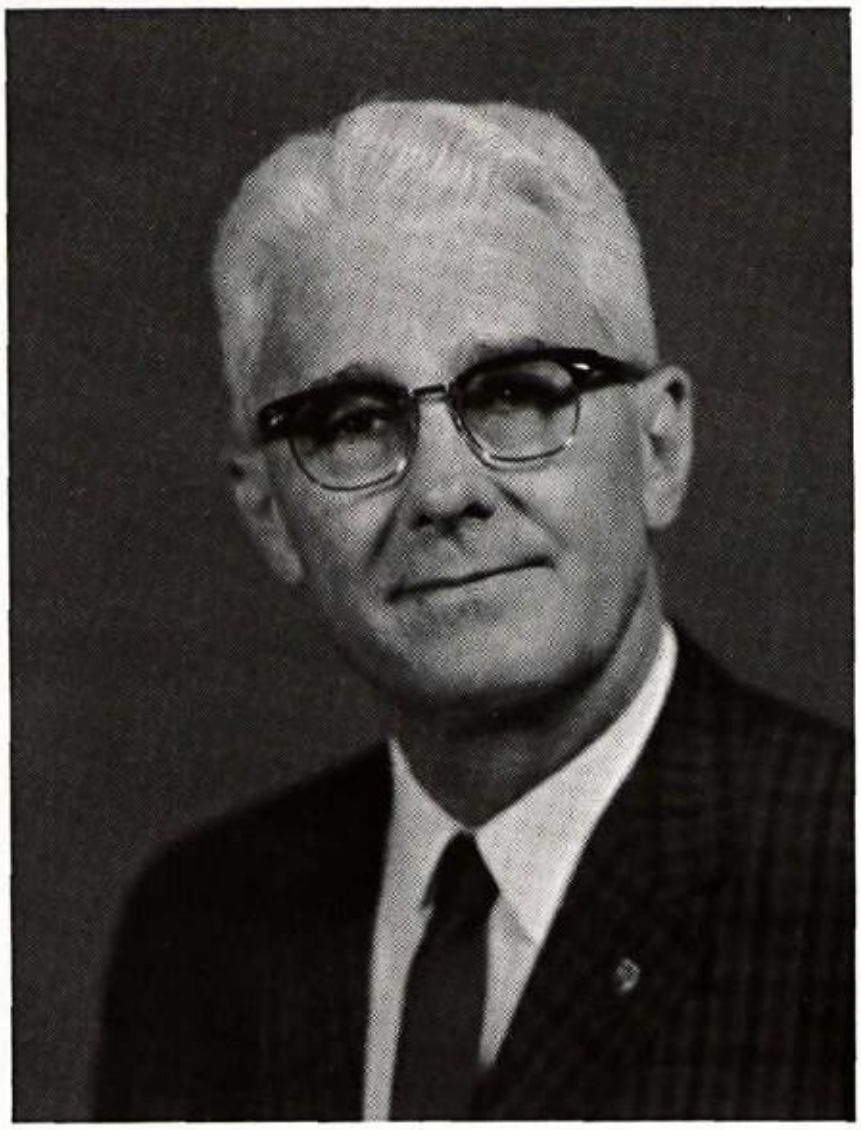
PRINCIPAL OF WEST HIGH



Mr. R. E. C. Love

Always in a cheerful mood and always willing to offer help and advice to anyone is our principal, Mr. R. E. C. Love. He has tirelessly given himself to the school and to its faculty and students. For 12 years he has been loyal to us and has helped in every way possible to make West High School what it is today. He is firm, efficient, but understanding. For his appreciation of us for what we are and his dream of what we may become we owe deep graditude.

Mr. Love helps a senior make plans for the year-book.

"Mr. Love speaking."

SECRETARY OF WEST HIGH

Friend, counselor, and adviser to all, are the words that best describe Mrs. Wray, secretary of West High. We meet this shinning face every morning as we enter school and it stays with us throughout the day. Her friendliness, understanding, patience, as well as efficiency, make a perfect example to all the students at West High.

We are all greatly indebted to Mrs. Wray for the many things she has done for us. Even after we have been gone from this school for many years, we will always remember Mrs. Wray and how she made our stay at West, "the best."

GUIDANCE

The guidance program at West is improving year by year. More materials have been made available especially to those students who plan to attend colleges or universities. Also, more tests are being given to help students make other vital decisions pertaining to their futures.

The main asset to the guidance department though, is Mrs. Naomi Hina, our competent guidance counselor. She is well trained in her field and is always willing to give counselling to those who desire it. This winter Mrs. Hina was called upon in the absence of Mrs. Wray to carry out the secretarial duties.

SRA

West High's Student Representative Assembly was organized in West's first year and has worked ever since to offer the students a voice in their school government. Not only is the Assembly a student means of improving West High, but also serves as a link between students and faculty. The SRA sponsors such things as sock-hops, United Fund — Red Cross Campaign, Youth Appreciation Parade, and the campaign, election, and dance of the Homecoming Queen.

A new project sponsored by SRA was the Rebel Record. It contained names, addresses, and phone numbers of every student at West.

KEY CLUB

Sponsored by the West Knoxville Kiwanis Club, the West High Key Club is one of the school's most active service organizations. Under the guidance of Ward Seymour, president, and Mr. Roland Smith, sponsor, the Key Club has contributed much to West High.

Aiming to build character and better citizenship, the Key Club is composed of the key boys in the school. A boy must have leadership, scholarship, and sportsmanship in order to qualify for membership in the Key Club.

This year the Key Club sold miniature flags in order to raise money to buy a flag for each homegroup. For its chapel program the Key Club had as its guest speaker Dr. Ruth Stevens who spoke on the "Cuban Crisis."

PEP CLUB

Enthusiasm is the big word at West this year since the Pep Club moved in. The cheerleaders along with a few students and Mrs. Cooper, the club sponsor, got the club started.

The duties of the Pep Club are to get more people to the games, make posters advertising current games, decorate the boys' dressing room before big games, and above all yell at the games.

Of course, the two main objectives of the Pep Club are increasing good school spirit and increasing enthusiasm among all the students and teachers.

This year has been successful for the Pep Club and we hope in the years to come it will be able to control school spirit.

VARSITY CLUB

This is West's second year for the Varsity Club and it has increasingly become more active. Some of their projects are selling football programs, concessions at games, and having programs during school. They furnish all the athletic pictures for the hall.

Membership is restricted to all boys in sports: track, baseball, football and basketball. Cheerleaders may also be members.

The Varsity Club is due much credit for the work they have done this year. Meetings were often held at night in which all members were present. Family night was the main project of the Varsity Club.

The Latin clubs have programs several times during the school year. During the spring, a few students are selected to attend the state convention for Latin students in Nashville.

The purpose of these clubs is to learn more of the customs of foreign countries. Mrs. Payne sponsors all French activities.

This year West has a student from Venezuela, Ali Olivero, who has helped the Spanish students enjoy their new language.

The core of West High's dramatic activities is the National Thespians. The National Society itself was established in 1929 at Fairmont Teachers College.

Thespians is composed of students who have obtained ten points for achievements in acting, stage work, costuming, and make-up. Mr. Potts, the club sponsor, is behind every promotion the club puts out. Thespians' main project is the Senior Class play held in the spring of each year.

SCIENCE CLUB

The purpose of the Science Club is to give interested science students an opportunity to learn more about science than that which is offered in the classroom. The major requirement demanded of all members is to complete a science project for entry in the area Science Fair. Senior Jack Whiteman is the president of this organization and he works in co-operation with the sponsor, Mr. Hardin, to make the West High Science Club a success.

PHOTOGRAPHY CLUB

The Photography Club is composed of interested students who make good use of the equipment in the school classroom. Mr. Hardin instructs and advises the students.

These students are very reliable and dependable. West could not have gotten along without them during Mrs. Wray's absence.

Y-TEENS

The first year for Y-Teens has proved to be very successful at West. Their three purposes are: to grow as a person, to grow in friendship with people of all races, religions, and nationalities, and to grow in love and thought.

LIBRARY ASSISTANTS

The West library assistants are made up of a group of students who are interested in library work.

They help in such services as keeping records, collecting fines, and putting the library books and magazines in order.

BANK AND STORE ASSISTANTS

The bank and store assistants are a great help to all students at West. The bankers serve the needs of the school by handling money which is collected by West High clubs or activities.

The store assistants, while getting training in selling, perform an indispensable service to the school. Supervised by Mrs. Beverly, the store sells school supplies ranging from combs to stationery.

CHOIR

The West High Choir, under the direction of Miss Sloan, worked hard to provide service to its school. It was very unfortunate that they could not perform more this year due to the fact that the auditorium was damaged.

BAND

The band at West is under the capable leadership of M. Neal Haworth.

Although the band is handicapped by its smallness the students at West heard them often at football games cheering the players on.

C.S.U.

Each morning before school students seek to begin their day right in the Christian Student Union. After singing, the group hears a short devotional delivered by one of the students. CSU is inter-denominational and everybody is welcome. This year it was led by Nancy Fraas and Andy Holt.

YOUNG LIFE

An inter-denominational organization, Young Life, meets each week at a student's home for singing and an inspirational talk. Scotty Manley has been West's leader for four years. Our president, Greg Blankenship, helped Scotty out with the song-leading, the bouncers kept the crowd down to organized chaos, and the secretaries presented their "minutes."

Officers: Greg Blankenship, Scotty Manley, leader, Jerelyn Lee, Jan Hough, Nancy Fraas, Patsy Green.

WEST WIND

Editor Steffi Jones and Mrs. Naomi Hina, sponsor.

The West Wind, newspaper of West High School, is a monthly publication. It was under the editorship of Steffi Jones for the year of 1962-1963. The five staffs, news, feature, business, ad, and sports, worked together to produce a paper of first class rating.

Under the sponsorship of Mrs. Naomi Hina, the journalistic-minded students expressed the desires, ideas, and accomplishments of the students.

These students head the individual staffs. Together with Steffi, they help to put out a fine newspaper. WESTERNER

This year the WESTERNER staff has tried to produce the best yearbook possible. We worked many long hours to show all phases of school life, activities, athletics, and honors. We hope it will serve you as a memory of your 1962-63 year at West. Without the help of Mrs. Marsh, the advisor, this yearbook would not have been a success. Melissa Cooley, editor-in-chief, guided the production of what we think is the highlight of the school year. Other editors include Jerelyn Lee, ad and business manager, Beth Pettit, literary editor, Betty Dyer, art editor, Andy Holt, sports editor, and Wayne Young, circulation manager.

CHEERLEADERS

The cheerleaders have worked without tiring this year to build enthusiasm and spirit at West. Led by Betty Gail Cooper and Jerelyn Lee the cheerleaders practiced twice a week in the summer to prepare for the coming season.

The main project was raising money to pay for pom-poms bought in the summer at cheerleading camp. They sold minature yarn pom-poms and easily raised the necessary money. Before important basketball games the cheerleaders decorated the boys locker room and the gym.

These girls are due the support they have worked so hard to win this year by holding pep rallies.

BALL TEAM

The 1962 Rebel footballers were coached by Marvin Mitchell, head coach and backfield coach, Robert Smith, line coach, and Dennis Webb, B-team coach. These three men provided the "go" behind what success the Rebel's had this past season. Due mainly to a lack of boys with whom to work, the coaches were only able to claim 3 victories for the team.

Even though the overall record of the team was 3 wins and 7 losses, the season was quite profitable in other ways. The squad, consisting of 36 players from ninth through twelfth grades, had fun playing the games and even toiling through the practices most of the time. The younger boys also gained invaluable experience as they were called to fill in the vacancies that occurred when other players were injured. Through the season all the players grew in maturity and ability until the end of the season when the Rebels were noted for their sportsmanship.

The coaching staff continually drilled the boys in the basic fundamentals. Blocking, tackling, and the successful running of offensive and defensive maneuvers were stressed in every practice. The coaches altered the wing-T attack successfully to the extent that the Rebels' offense was a tough one for every opponent to halt.

The captain Johnny McKinnon and co-captains Wayne Young and Wayne Major lead the team well. Their spirit was always good as the team went into each game. Much credit should be paid to these three seniors not only for their leadership but also for their efforts to win on the football field. The other four seniors showed this desire to win and strove with all their might to reach their goal of winning.

Special credit should be paid Wayne Young who was selected by the coaching staff as "Most Valuable Player." He stood out on defense making many excellent tackles and also on offense. He completed 52 of 118 passing attempts giving him a total offense yardage of 1002 yards. Also selected by the staff for "Most Improved Player" was Jim Rike, "Best Blocker," Wayne Major, and "Best Defensive Player" Joe Rutherford. These boys have worked hard to make the '62 Rebel team a success. Another Rebel honoree is Ernest Biggs who made the first string All-City squad.

To a former great West High star, and friend of Scoobey. Good luck next year.

SENIOR LETTERMEN

WEST vs. CARTER

The Rebel team had a hard opening game losing 20—6 to Carter. At half-time the gridders were only behind by one touchdown. In the second half West scored only once to Carter's two extra touchdowns. Wayne Young and Larry Merritt lead the Rebel offense.

WEST vs. TSD

In the footballer's second game they had a lull in the first half, yet came through to beat TSD 21—19. Larry Merritt scored two touchdowns while Wayne Major scored on a pass from Wayne Young.

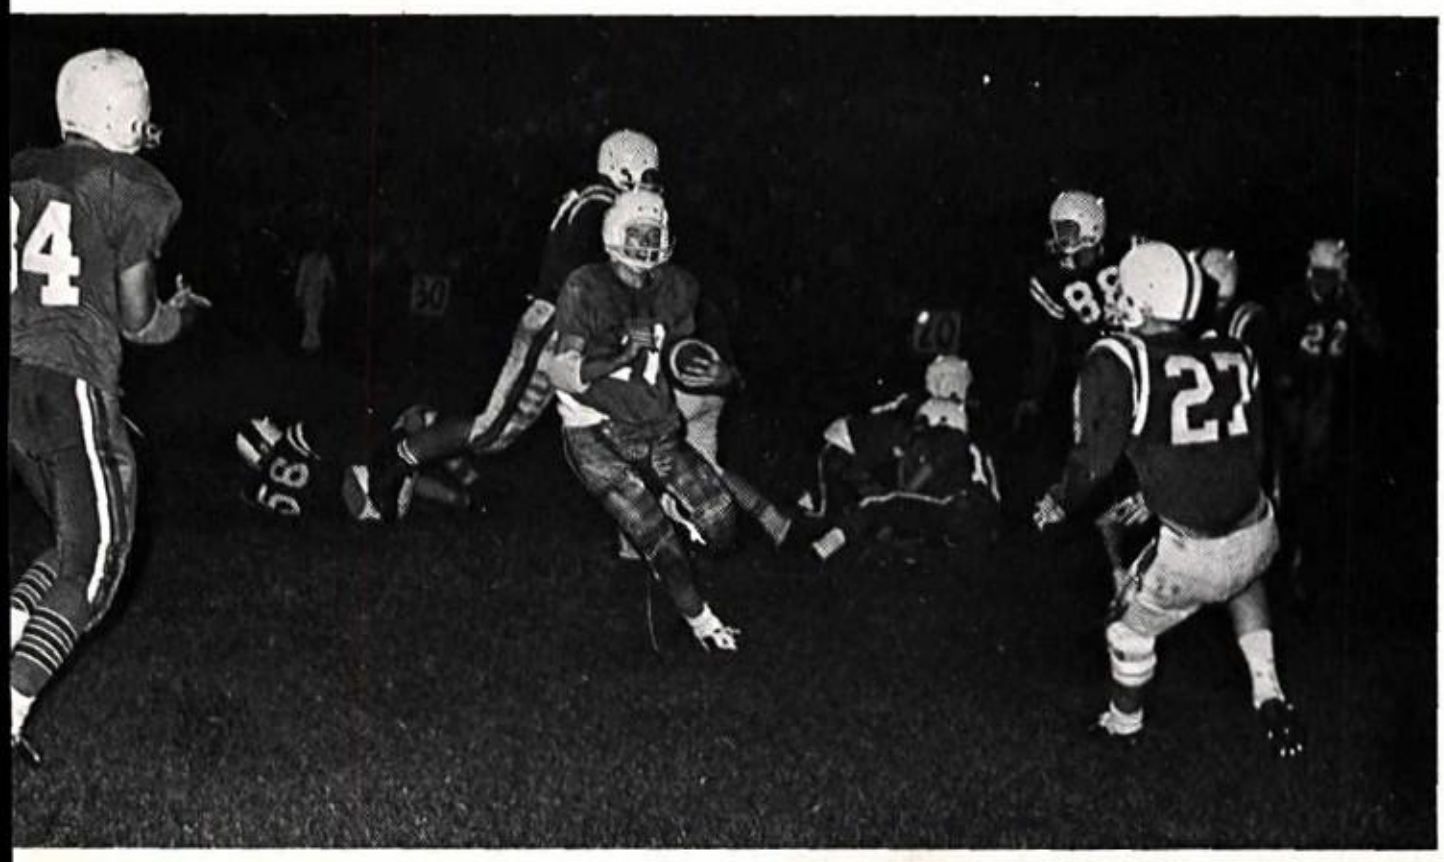
WEST vs. JEFFERSON CITY

Jefferson City was the next West opponent. Wayne Young's completion of 5 passes for 7 attempts was too much for the A division rival. The final score was 18—13, West. All three touchdowns were made in the first half, two by Wayne Major and one by Jim Rutherford.

WEST vs. POWELL

The highly favored Powell team was stunned by a finished score of 14—6, Powell. The West score was made by Young's connection with Major proving to be West's best game.



Mike Keller

Larry Merritt

WEST vs. EAST

The Mountaineers proved to be too fast for the Rebels to win their Homecoming game. Though the score was 26—0 West stand-outs were John McKinnon, Larry Merritt, and Wayne Young. Defensive stand-outs were Jim and Joe Rutherford and Jim Morris.

Much support was given this season by the good consistent work of seniors Mike Keller, Andy Holt, and Ernest Biggs.

WEST vs. FARRAGUT

The fight for the A Division championship was a heartbreaker for West. John McKinnon's interception for a long TD run was called back because of a penalty. This left the game 12—0 in favor of Farragut.

WEST vs. HALLS

West's last victory was over Halls by a score of 19—12. Young scored two TDs while Jim Rutherford finished off Hall's hopes with an intercepted pass touchdown.

WEST vs. PORTER

The game at Porter ended in a 32—6 loss for the Rebels. The game was hard fought but Porter had too much power offensively and defensively. Costly mistakes marred West's chances also.

WEST vs. BEARDEN

The team was ready mentally for the rival game with Bearden. Yet, again weight was one of the main factors which led to the sixth defeat for the Rebels by a score of 34—6.

Johnny McKinnon who scored the TD against Porter also made the only tally for West against Bearden.

WEST vs. TELLICO PLAINS

The surprise game of the year was the last against Tellico Plains. The Rebels lost the game 26—6 to their wide open offense. The younger boys got their chance and proved to be well trained as they were the only ones able to score against Tellico. After being set up in the final minutes by the running of Jerry Henry, Terry Henry was able to score a TD. It is the hope of all that this is a glimpse of what is to come in the 1963 season.

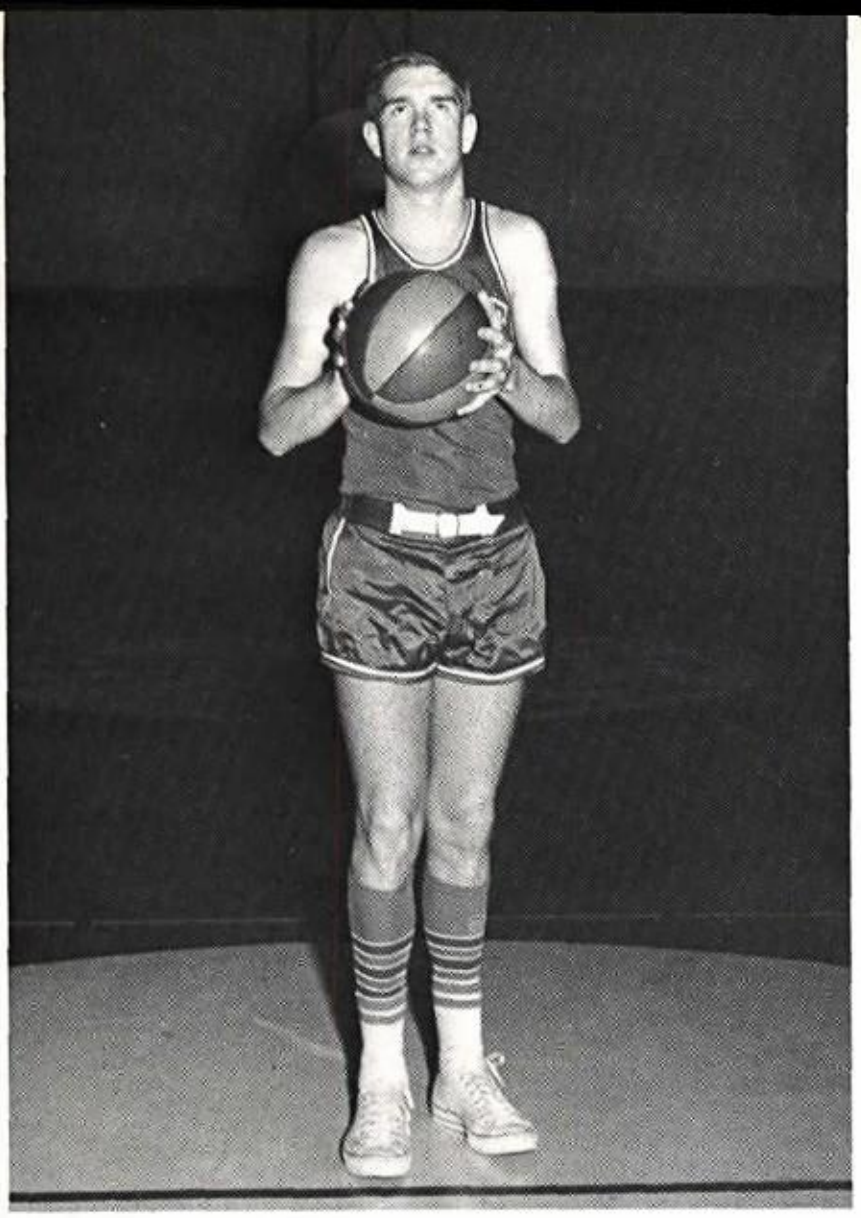
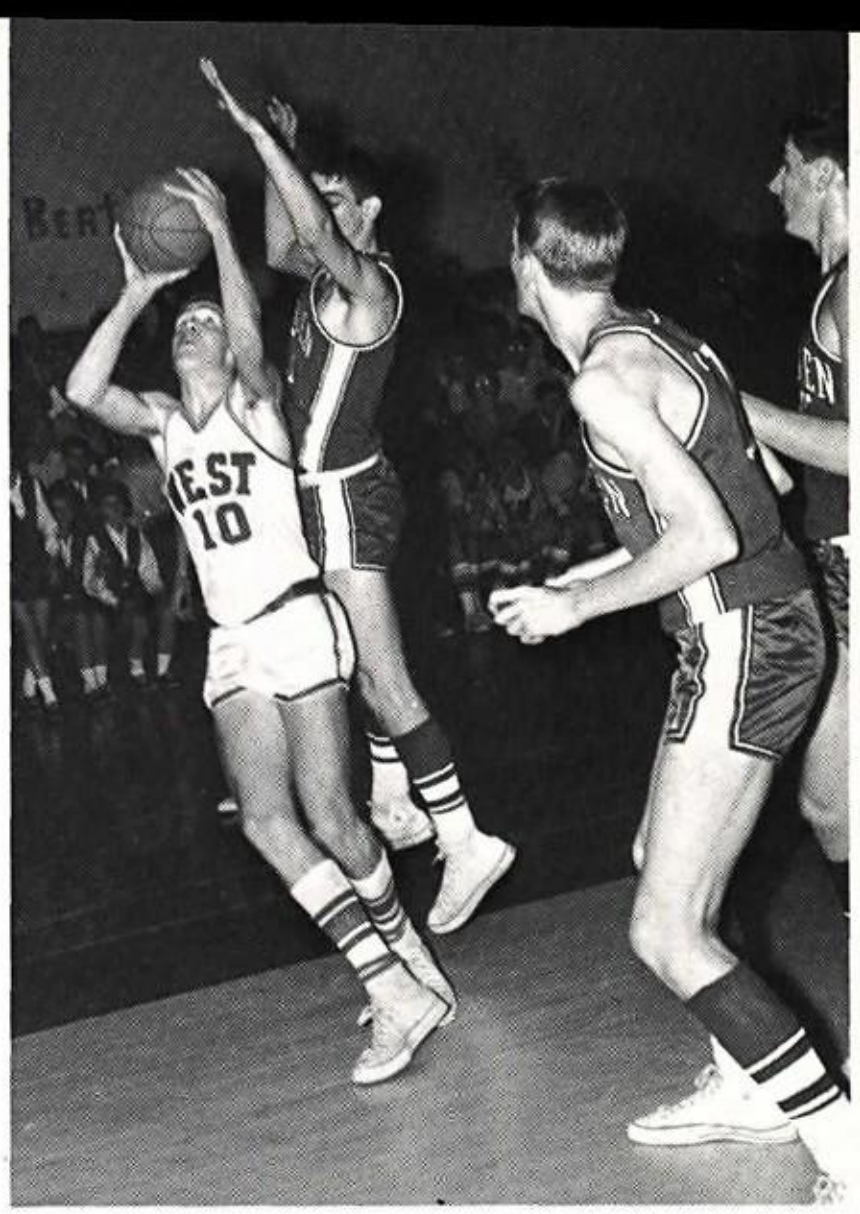
1962 BASKETBALL TEAM

The Rebel basketballers provided much excitement for their fans and coaches this past season. There were many heart-breaking varsity games lost by 2 points or less. Yet the squad kept its Rebel spirit. Talent was available in each man, but overall height ruined the roundballers chances against many foes. Untimely injuries also hurt the team especially in the loss of Captain Greg Blankenship, one of the most consistently good Rebel roundballers.

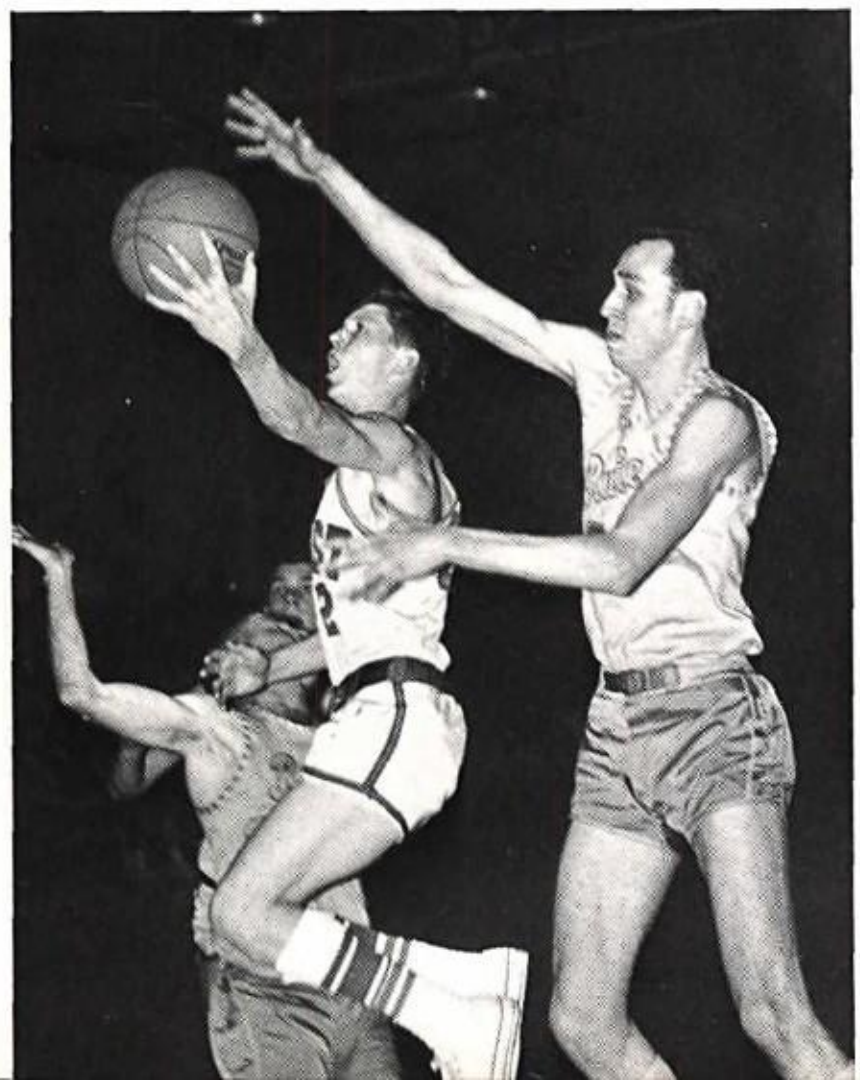
Coach Walter Ganz worked with "his boys" long and hard. It was an amazing job done in preparation for each game. Coach Ganz had two good leaders in Captain Greg Blankenship and Co-captain Wayne Young. Johnny McKinnon and Wayne Young held the guard posts well as did Frank Powers, Mike Causseaux, and Greg Blankenship perform exceptionally well at their forward positions. Much strength was added to the team by the bench-warmers who were always ready to take up the slack and win.



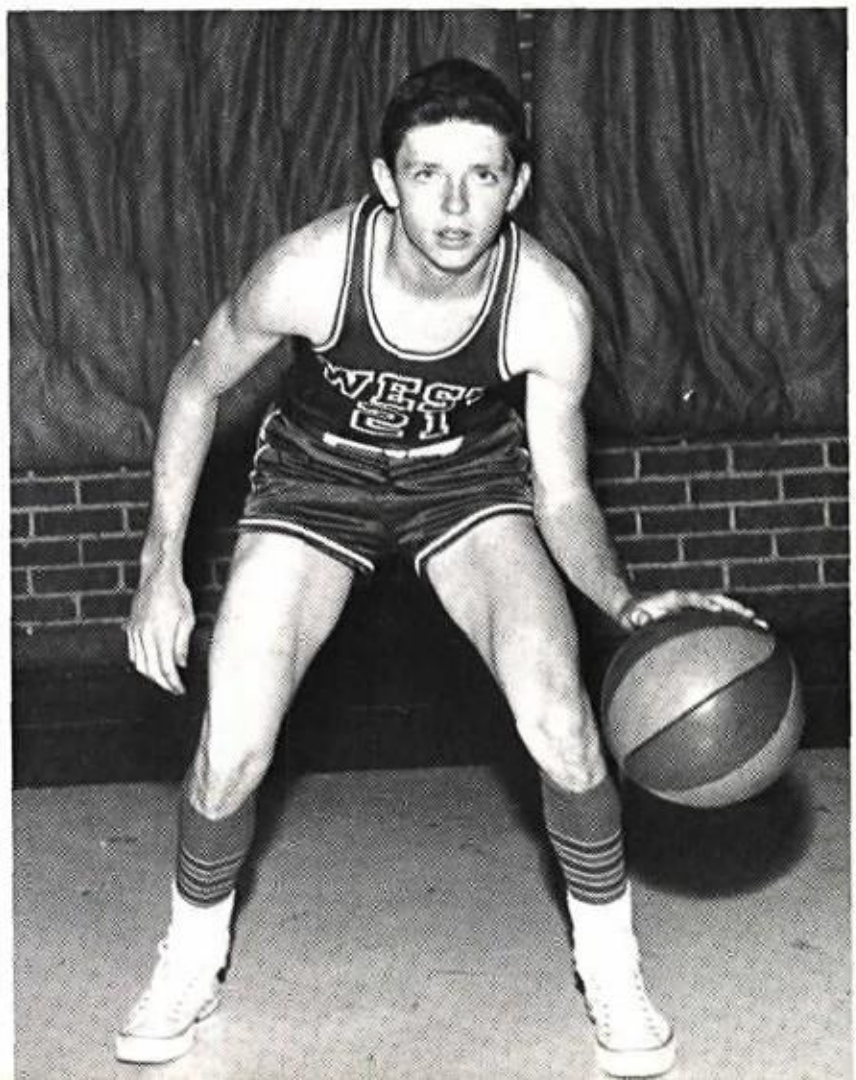
Captain Greg Blankenship



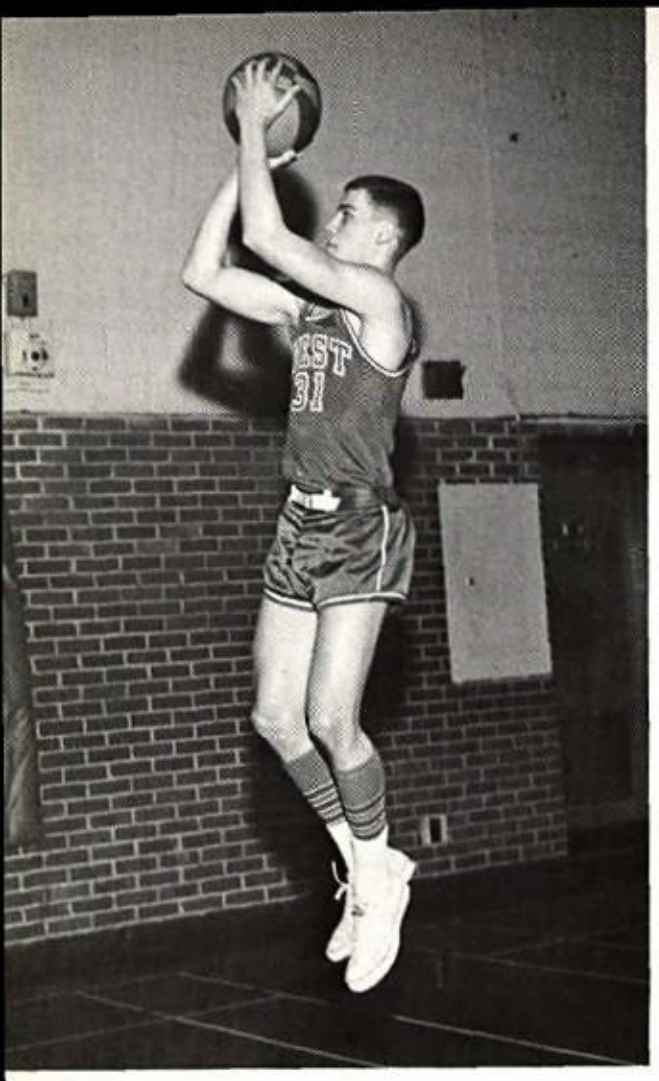
West played a tremendous game against South at West. Fate was the only thing which kept the Rebels from beating the state's number 1 ranked high school club. Jay Cole, the state's scoring leader, made a basket with four seconds remaining in the game to beat West 35—33. Cole lead South in scoring while Captain Greg Blankenship led West in rebounding and scoring with 16 points. The strategy used by Coach Ganz almost broke South's back. The "freeze" and "control-play" from the opening tip was executed wonderfully by the Rebels and succeeded in keeping the ball away from South. Very few mistakes in ball handling were made as West capitalized on every break of the game. There was just no way to stop the final shot which killed the Rebels.

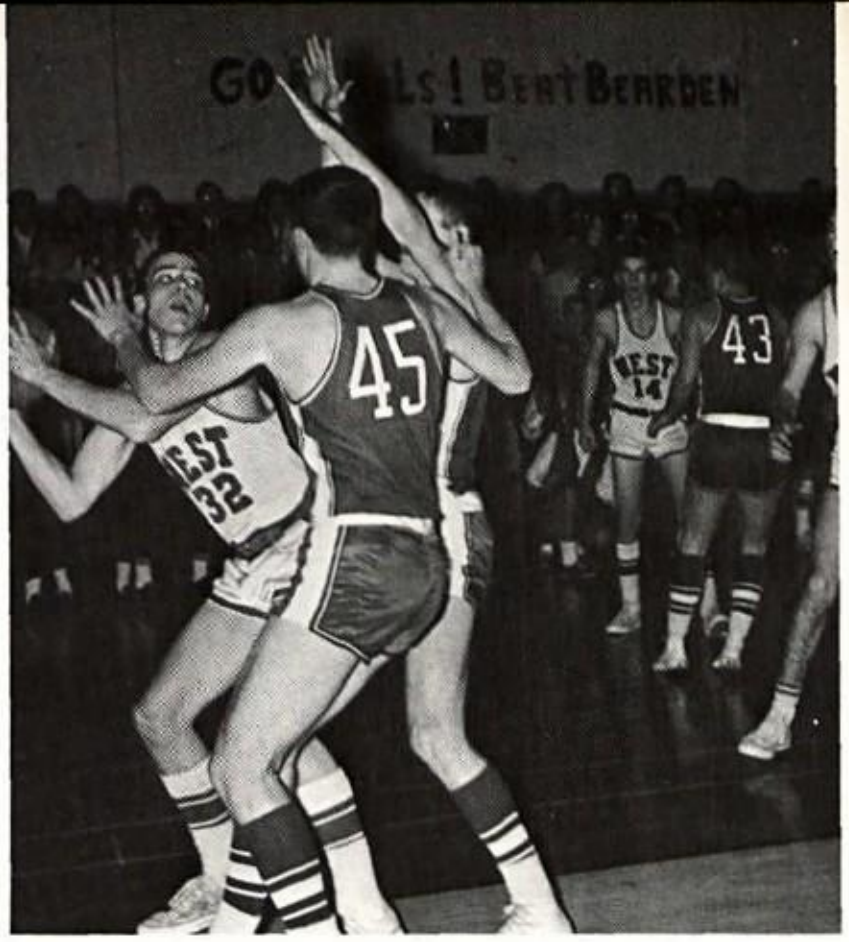


Co-captain Wayne Young



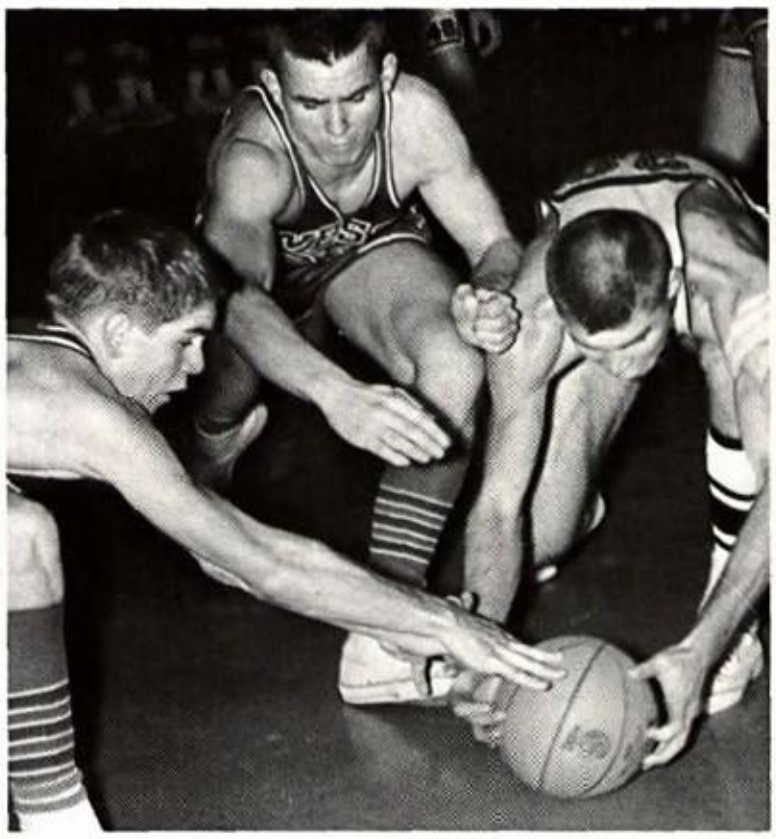
SENIORS



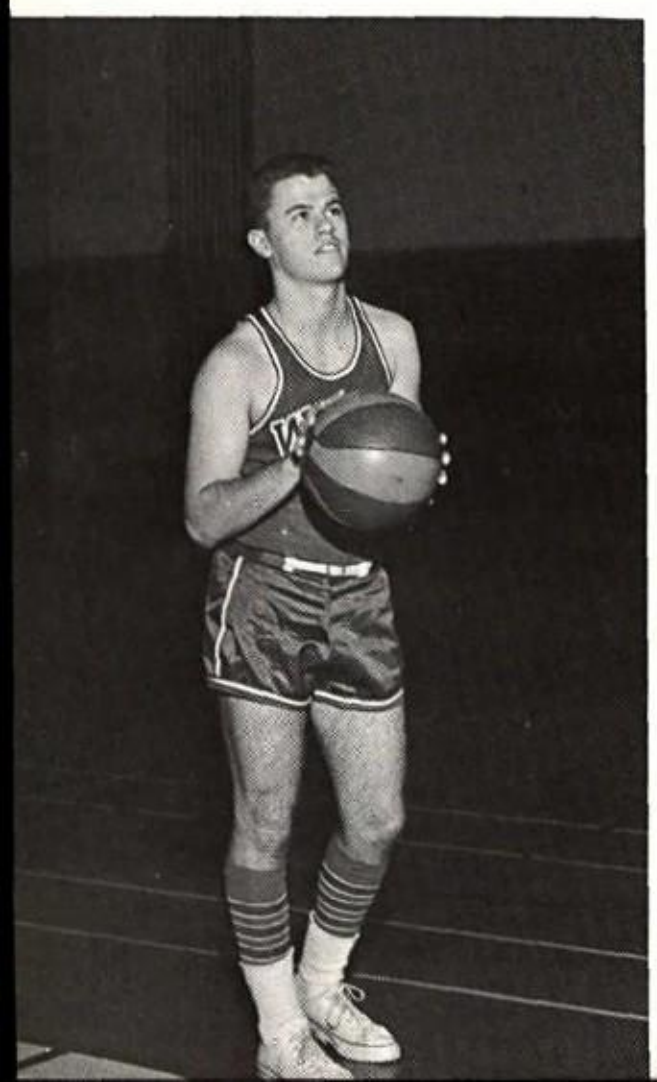


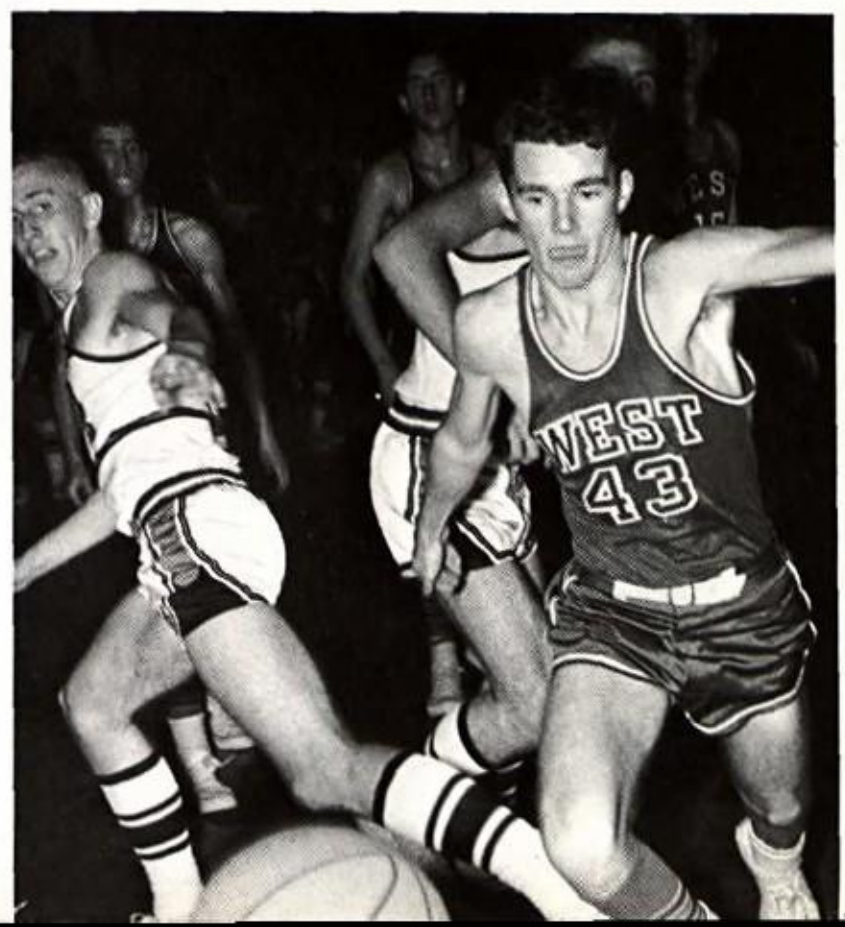
Frank Powers

Revenge for the loss to Bearden in football was gained by the Rebels on their home court. West shot better than the Bearden basketballers and also cleared more rebounds than the tall opposing team. Wayne Young led the Rebel attack with 18 points and also stole the basketball from Bearden players numerous times. Russ Williams collected 16 rebounds while Greg Blankenship got another 8 rebounds and added 13 points to the Rebel cause. Wayne Tipton, a leading scorer in the Knoxville Interscholastic League, gave much assistance to the losers but the game ended in 52—46 victory for West.

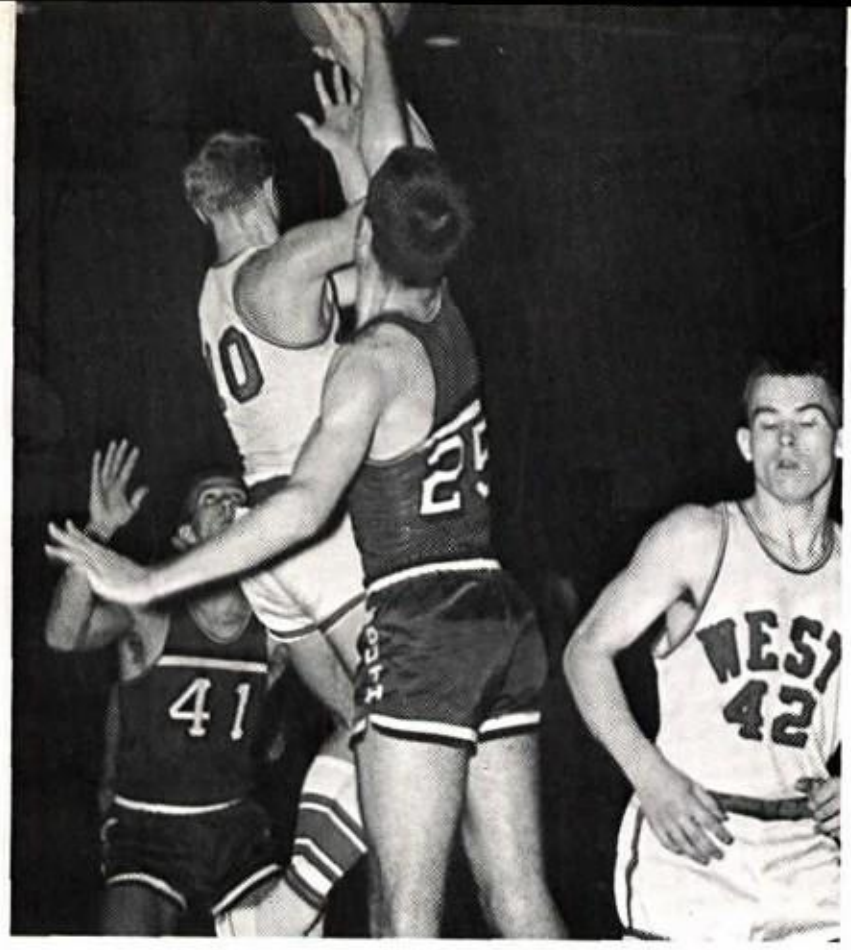


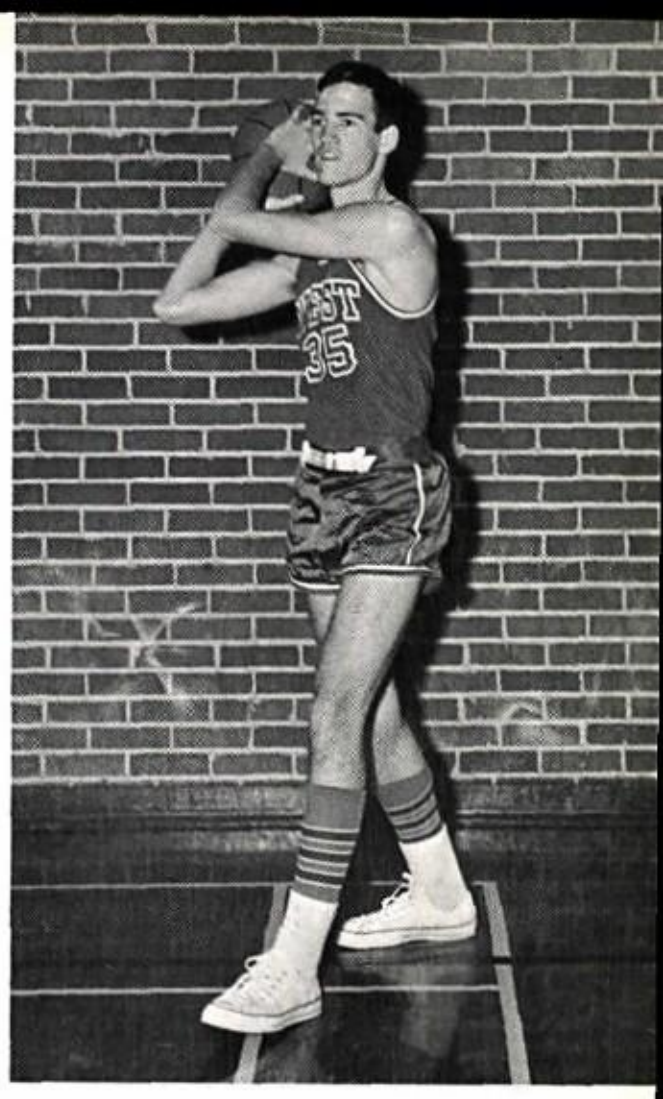
Johnny McKinnon



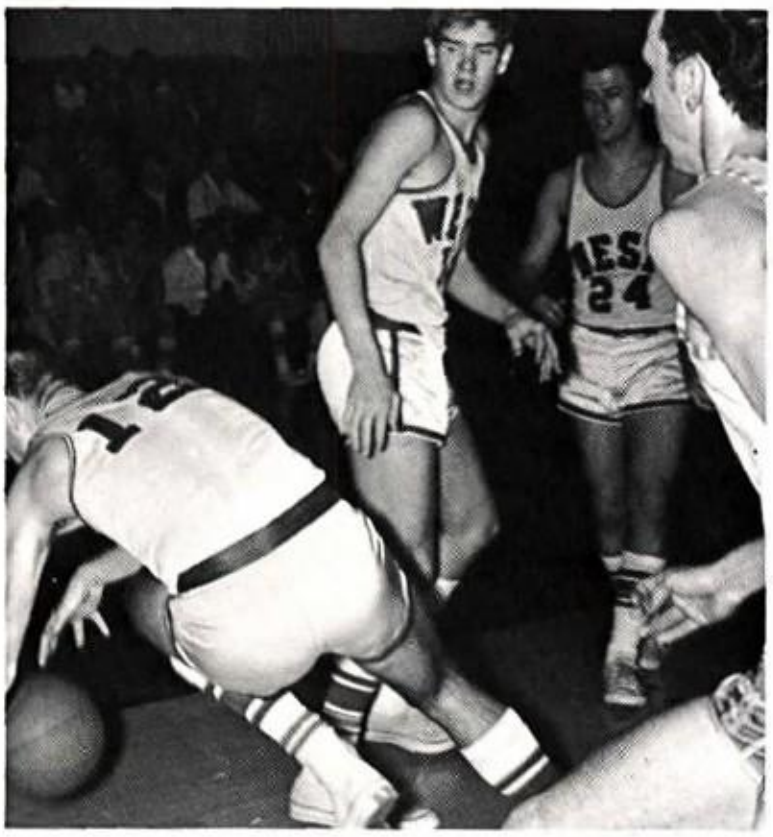


SENIORS



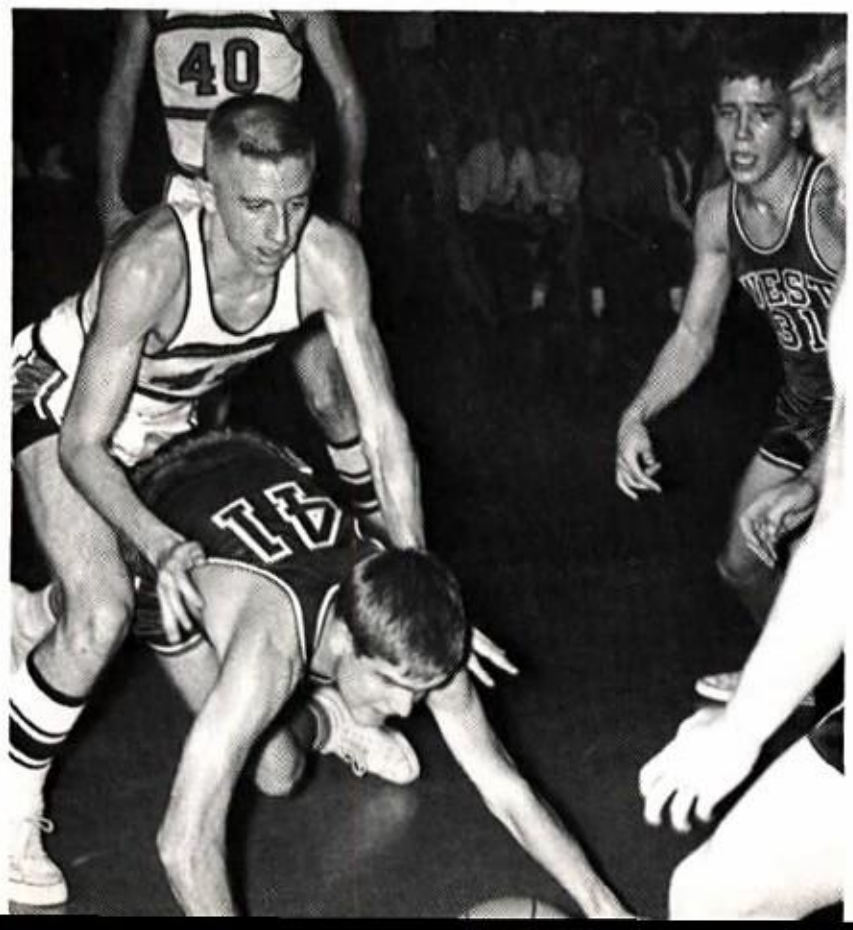


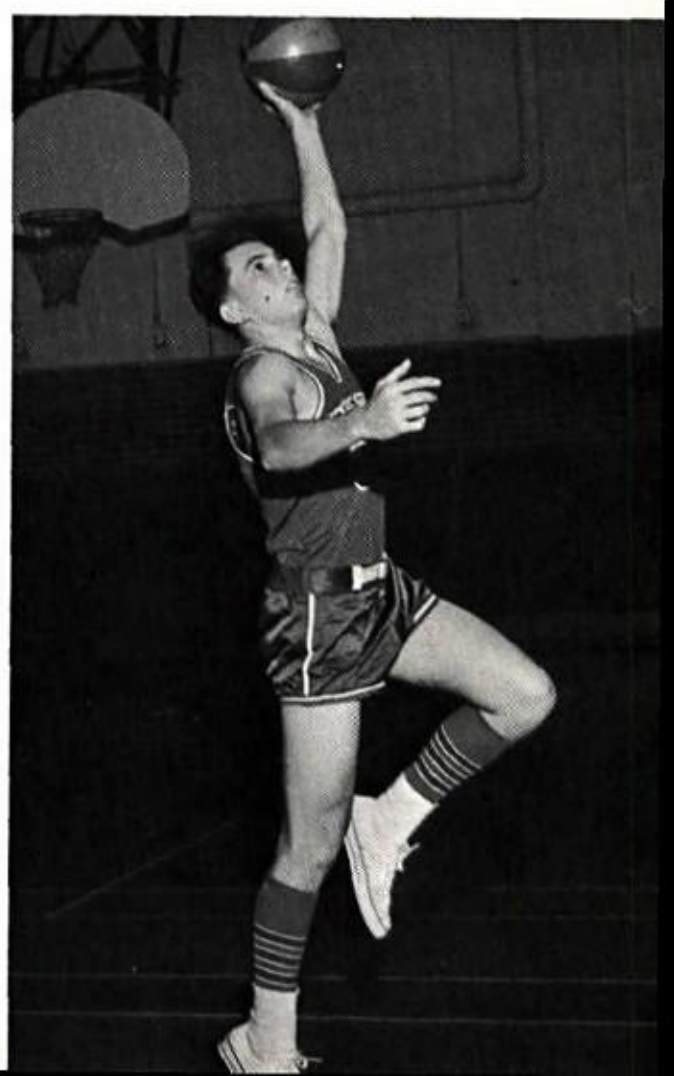
Mike Causseaux

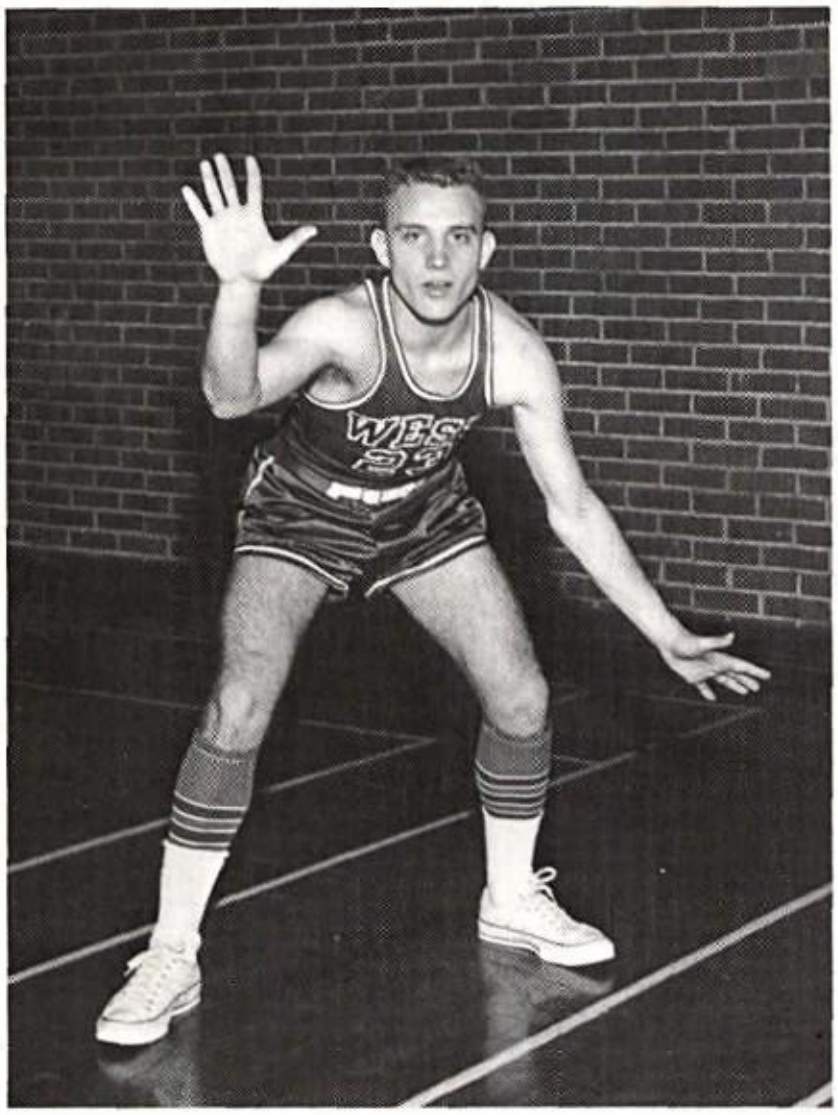


The Rebels lost another exciting game at home to Powell by a score of 52—50. Again it was a shot by the opposing team's best player which beat West. The Rebels had been playing a poor game up until the last quarter when they surged ahead to tie Powell in the regular game time. West held on to the ball in the 3 minute overtime waiting for a final shot to break the tie and give them a victory. West missed, leaving just enough time for Powell's Cannon to hit a desperation shot from the head of the foul lane just as the horn sounded. The scoring for West was led by three boys Frank Powers, Greg Blankenship, and Russ Williams who had 16, 13, and 10 points respectively.

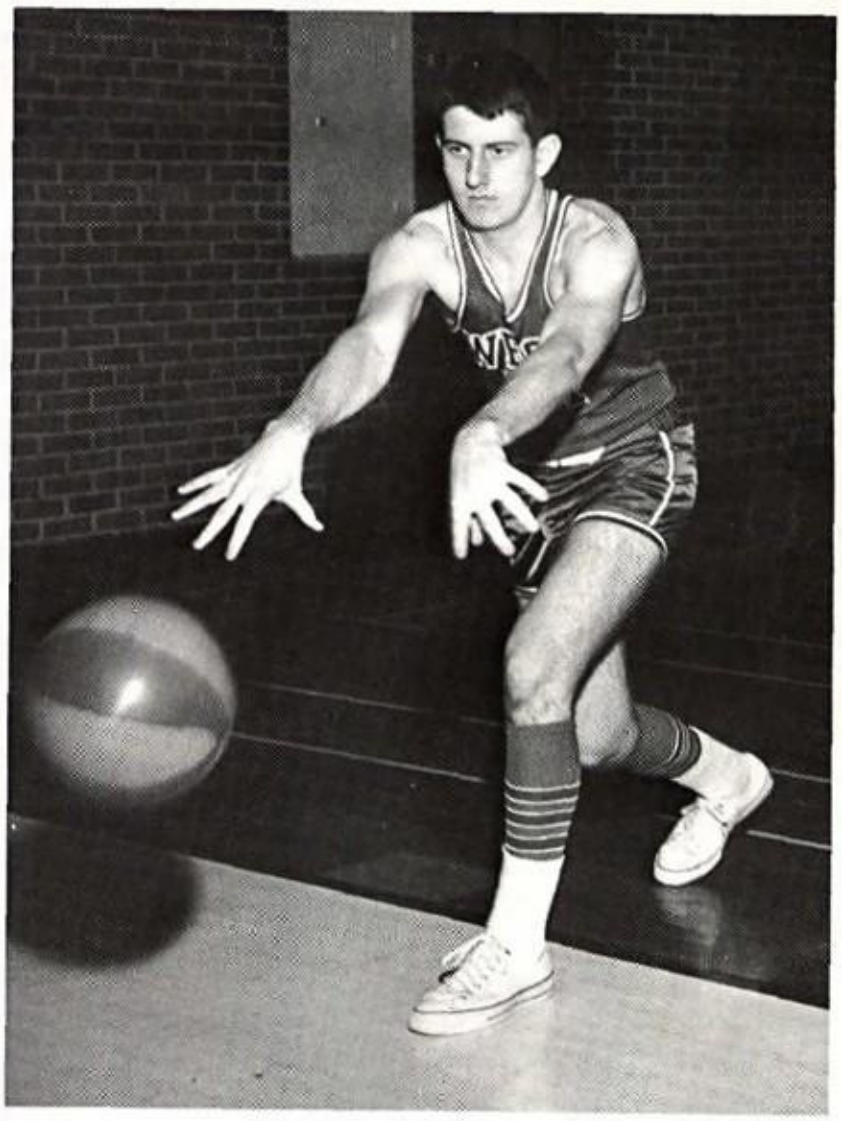
Mickey Williams







Rodney Nelson



Andy Holt

The South Invitational Tournament during Christmas vacation gave the Rebel roundballers one more victory. They beat Carter in a game which was decisively West's as the final score was 47—38. Russ Williams had another excellent night with 18 points and 14 rebounds. Support was also given by West's two starting guards Johnny McKinnon and Wayne Young who had 10 and 9 points respectively.

ROW 2: Manager, Steve Kelling, Jim Rutherford, Vernon Bruner, Steve Raby, Frank Smith, Dennis Lindsay, Joe Rutherford.

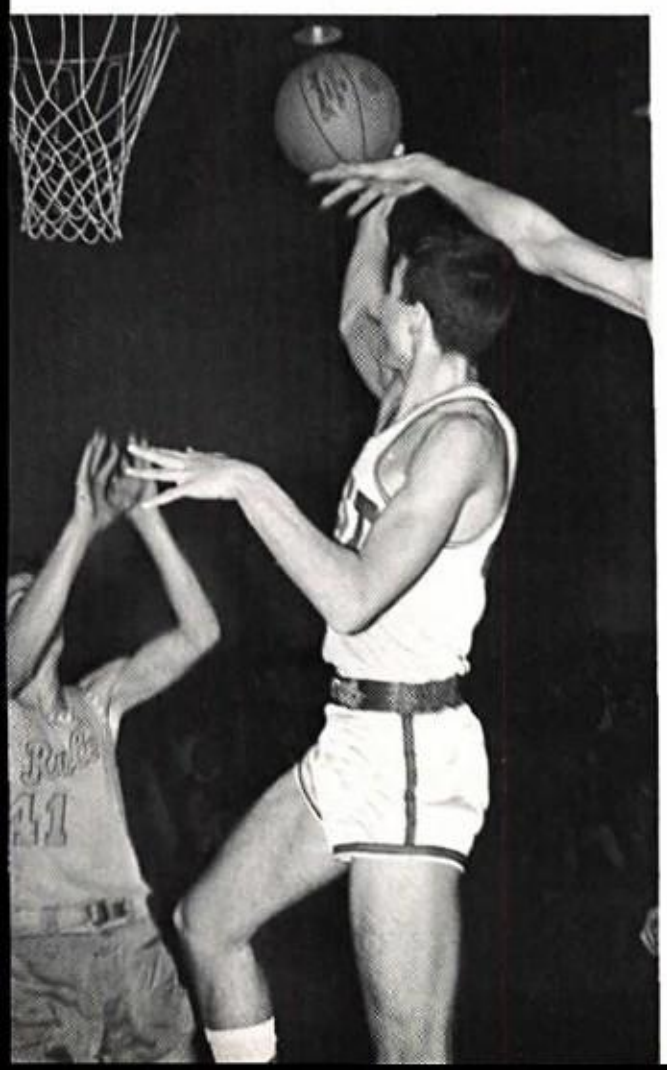
B-TEAM

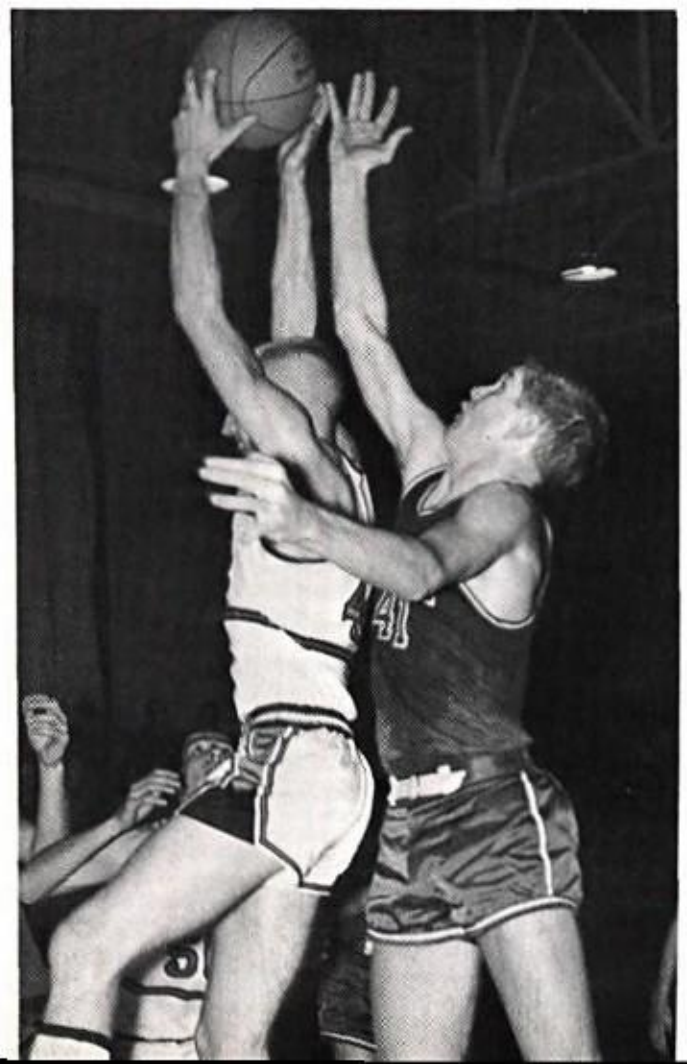
The B-team potential was developed by coach Jim Jollay. Besides juniors and sophomores, much new talent was found in a few of the new freshman class. Coach Jollay hopes to instill in these young freshman boys the Rebel spirit and Coach Ganz's style of play.

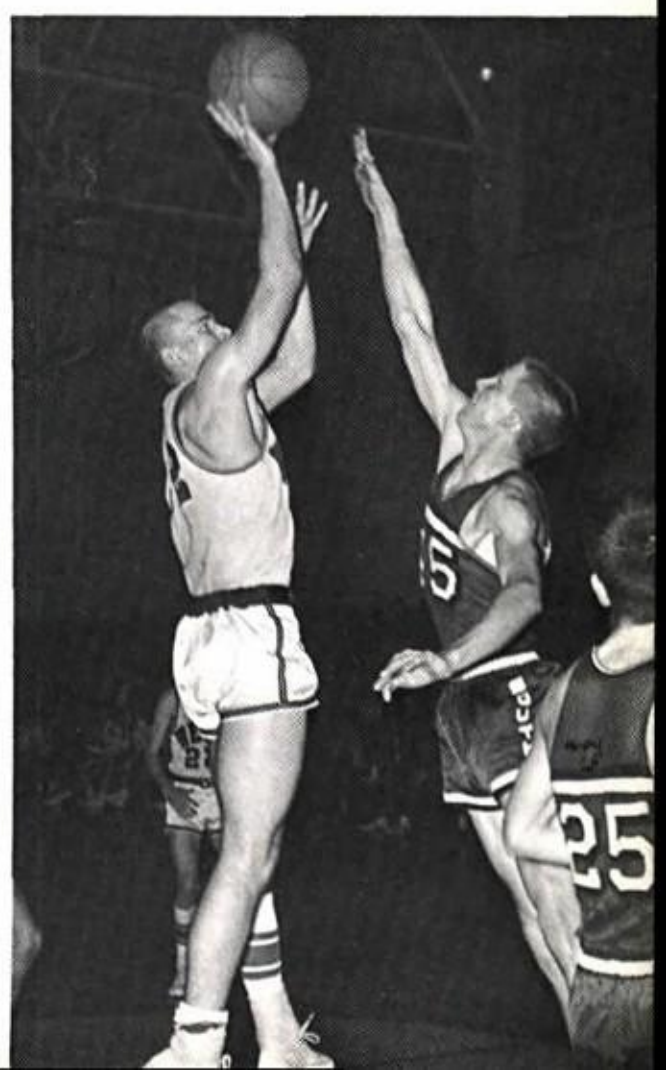
The B-team was led consistently by Inky Young, Nick Ramsey, Suthie Powers, and Jim Rutherford. These boys played a big part in the many victories of the B-team.

The crowds thoroughly enjoyed their exciting close games which they usually won.

Coach Ganz hopes that these boys, along with the four who played on the varsity club, can win many games next year. He also wishes more fans would come to see these boys, the future Rebel varsity men. He thinks this will better prepare them for their coming job.





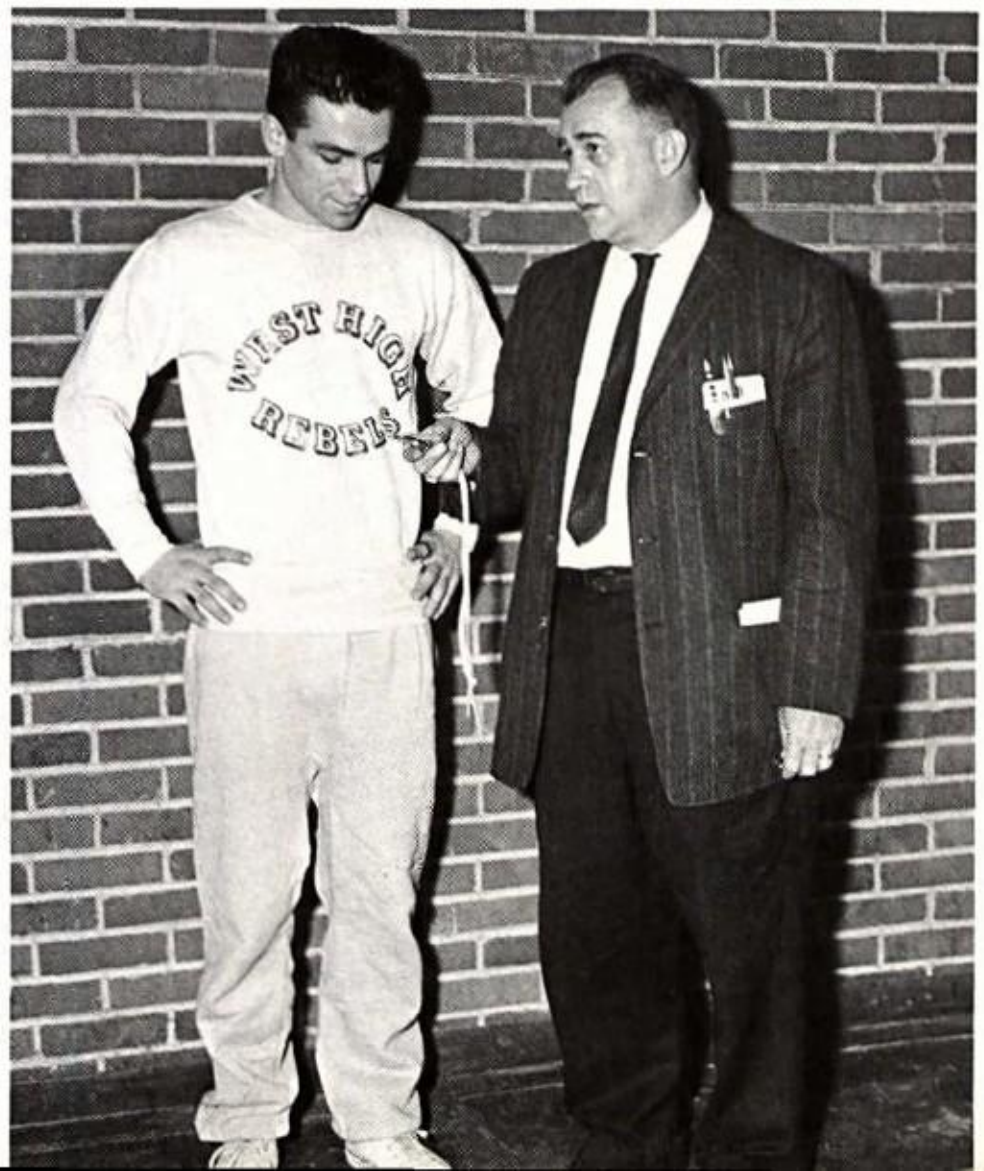


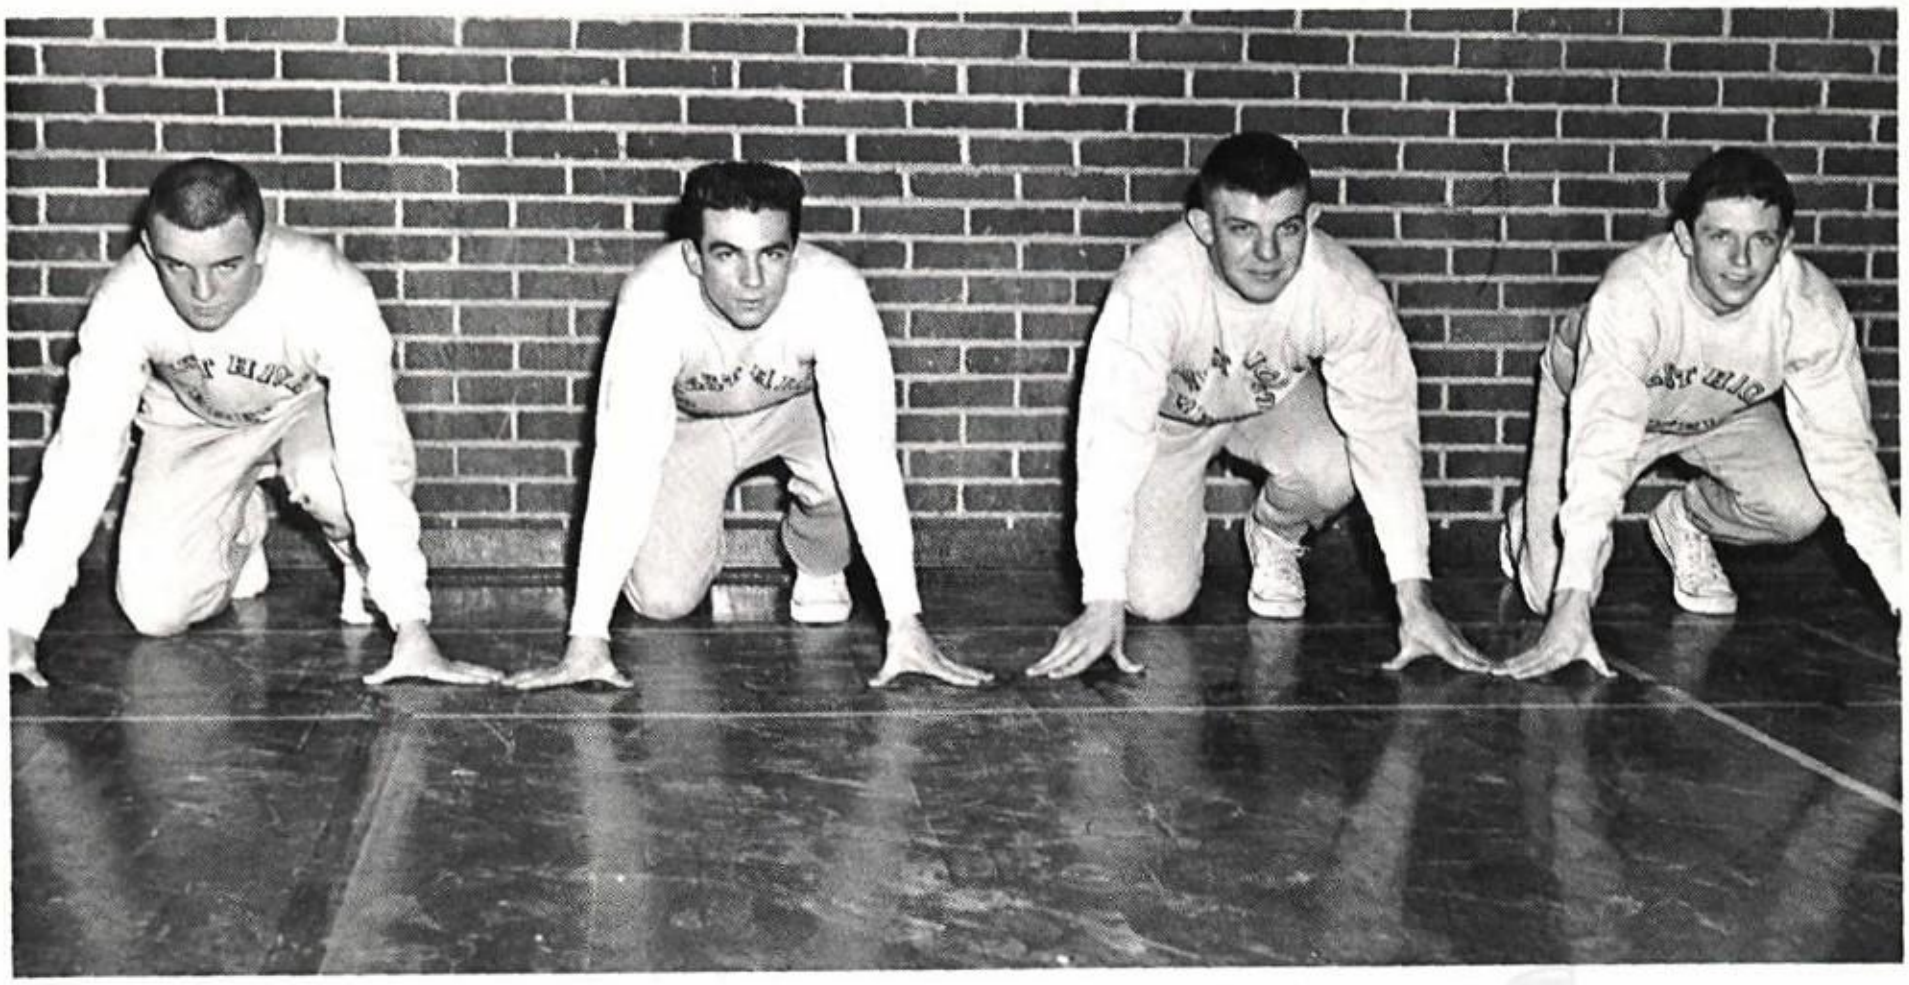
ROW 1: Danny Reed, Joe Rutherford, Wayne Young, Larry Merritt, Wayne Major. ROW 2: Jack Whiteman, Paul Pearson, Jim Rutherford, Tommy Polson, Jim Morris, Johnny Orr.

TRACK

West's athletic Department is becoming larger and more efficient in providing excitement for fans, fame for the school, and recreation for more boys. More sports are being offered with better coaching and equipment. This is especially evident in the track and field areas. Coach Walter Ganz is consistently striving to develop the potential of those boys who desire to compete with other schools in speed, brain, and intestinal fortitude.

Captain Wayne Major and Coach Walter Ganz.





Rutherford, Major, Merritt, and Young take their marks.

Wayne Major and Mike Causseaux have been elected as captain and co-captain respectively. Major is a speedy sprinter while Causseaux is a solid distance runner. These two seniors along with seniors Jack Whiteman, Wayne Young, Larry Merritt, and Johnny Orr provide the experience in running. Whiteman and Orr are important in the field events.

Coach Ganz expects his boys to be in top condition. He has extensive knowledge about how to prepare his boys. One of his best examples was Claude Ramer who set a new school record last year by running the 100 yard dash in 10.0 seconds. Coach Ganz's highest hopes for the coming season rests on his 440 yard relay team.

BASEBALL

West's baseball team is well equipped this year in many ways. Robert Smith is an excellent coach and spirit builder for the baseballer's. The team itself has much talent to be used on the diamond. Finally, Coach Smith is securing better baseball equipment which is constantly needed by the deserving team.

Veteran first baseman Greg Blankenship was chosen captain for the team. He has been a good leader and player in previous seasons. He will be assisted by Mickey Williams who is co-captain. Another important veteran is Rodney Nelson who has been catching for many years and will give the needed experience behind the plate to the team.

The bulk of the team consists of juniors. Many of these boys played a large part of the last season and are expected to come through to seize many victories this year for West.

ALL CITY VOLLEY-BALL TEAMS

All city volley-ball is an exciting event to the girls on the teams. They are chosen according to their volley-ball abilities and their sportsmanship. This year, having freshmen, West was able to compete in the junior high tournament also. Under the coaching of Mrs. Margerat Line, the girls practiced hard together many times after school hours. We are very proud of these girls and hope that each will gain much experience from participating in this activity.

SWIMMING TEAM

Members of the swimming team have worked very hard this year to make the team strong. They were required to have twelve practices and to possess a health card stating that they are physically fit. Practices were held every Wednesday from 4:30 to 5:30. Swimmers tried hard at each practice to increase their speed and to improve their form for the April meet. Led by Betty Gail Cooper and Patience Stair, the girls deserve much credit for their loyal enthusiasm.

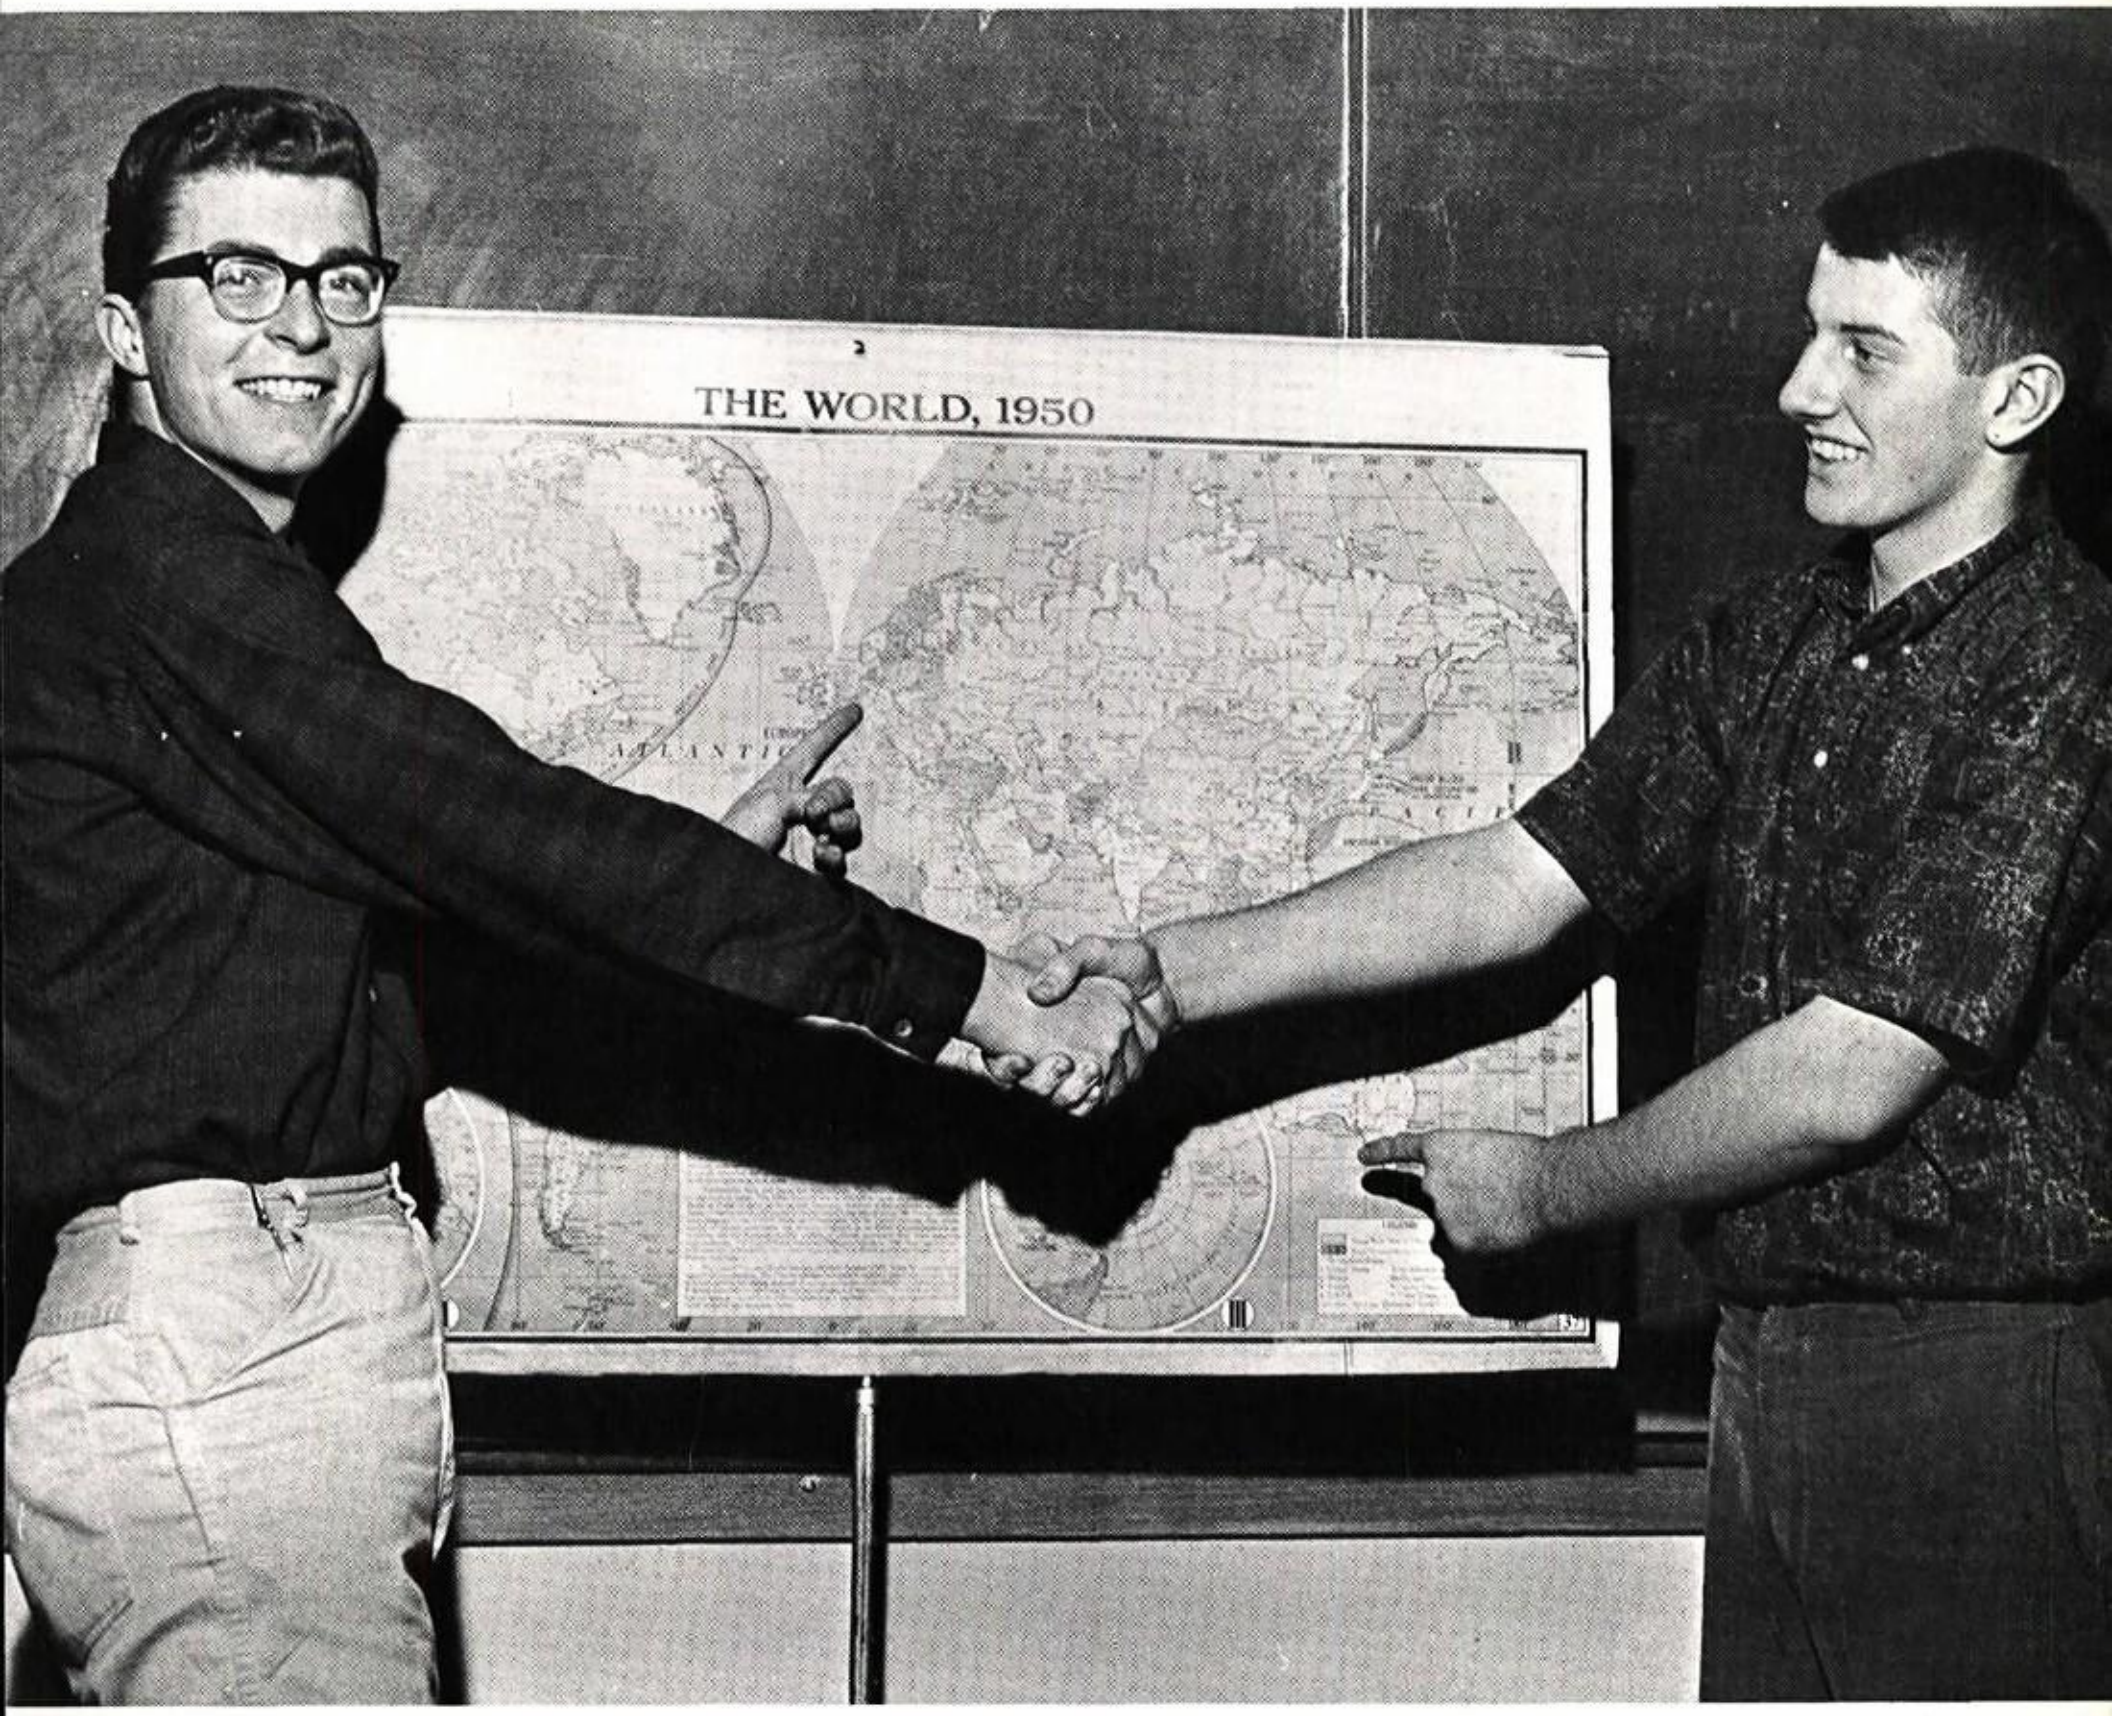
BOYS' AND GIRLS' STATE

Ward Seymour and Betty Gail Cooper were chosen by the faculty to represent West High at Boys' and Girls' State. These conventions, held in June, teach the delegates about city, county, and state government and, in addition, provide various forms of recreation and entertainment. The girls meet in Murfreesboro and the boys at Lebanon. They both made new friends and consider attending Boys' and Girls' State an experience they will never forget. Doug Little and Barbara Foster were chosen as alternate delegates.

D.A.R. REPRESENTATIVE

The winner of the D.A.R. Good Citizenship Award this year is Jerelyn Lee. She was elected by the Senior Class to receive the distinguished award. This honor, coveted by all senior girls, is obtained through the James White Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution. She is chosen for her outstanding dependability, service, patriotism, and leadership. But aside from these essential qualities, Jerelyn possesses the special warm personality which makes her a friend to all she meets.



AMERICAN FIELD SERVICE

Andy Holt was fortunate enough to be chosen as an exchange student to Sydney, Australia. Andy lived in Australia for eight months with the R. J. Delaney family. He attended Sydney Boys' High School and says he led a fairly normal Australian life, except for speaking to boys' and girls' schools. West was very proud to have Andy selected for this experience which he will long remember.

Erik Gerretsen, coming from Amsterdam, Holland, is the exchange student at West this year. Although Erik tells us that his school is very different from ours, through his adaptability and friendly personality, he won the friendship of all West High. West feels very fortunate in having Erik, and for enlarging its understanding of international friendship.

WHO'S WHO

These thirteen students were chosen by the faculty to Who's Who. They are picked each year from the senior class on a basis of outstanding leadership, scholarship, and service in the school. Who's Who is one of the highest honors a senior can receive at West.

HOMECOMING

Homecoming is a very exciting week at West. To get started, the football team nominates 5 girls for queen while SRA puts up 4. ~~Friday afternoon~~ Monday morning signs go up and the nine girls begin their campaigns. Thursday night at half-time of the annual East-West game the girls are presented on the field after riding around it in convertibles. Friday morning chapel skits are given by each girl's committee in a last minute effort to prove that their candidate is "the best for queen at West." Voting occurs in homegroup and the queen is announced at the dance after the presentation of all the candidates. She is crowned and congratulated by the current football captain. SRA conducts the preceding. This year the theme of the dance was the "Pigskin Prom."

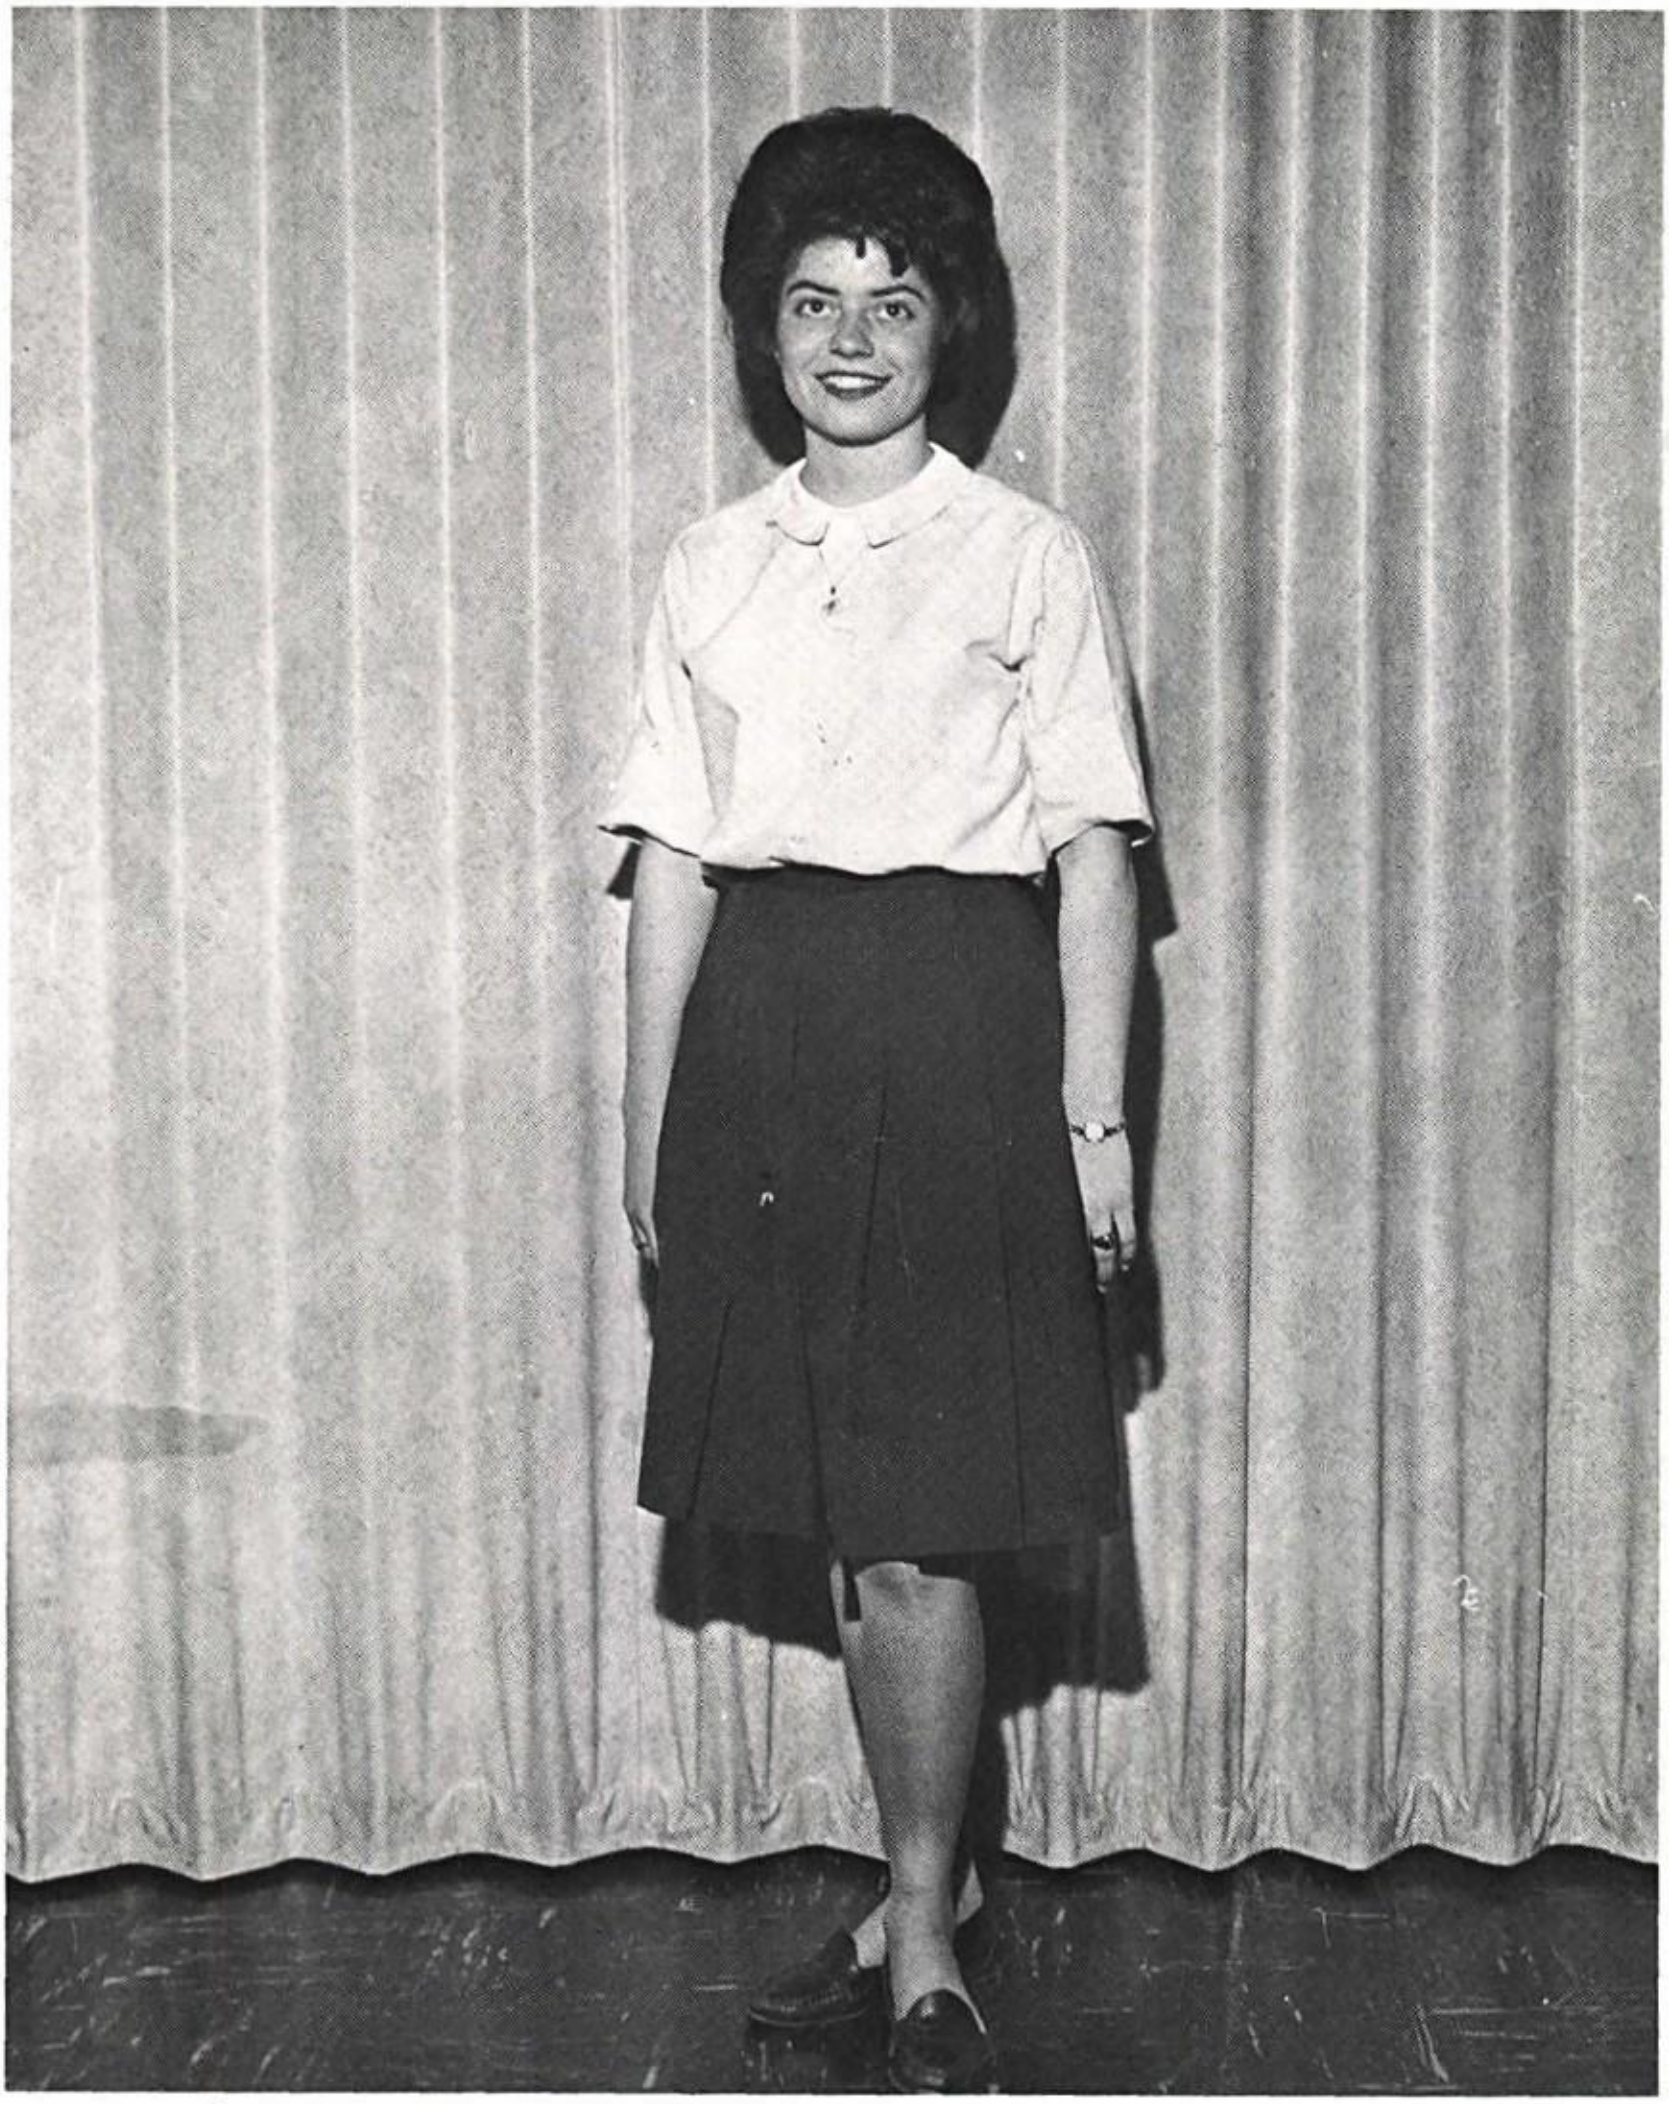
QUILL AND SCROLL

Quill and Scroll Society, an honorary organization, consists of students who have done excellent work on one of the two publications at West, the WESTERNER or the WEST WIND.

The members are selected from the upper third of their class and have proved themselves worthy of the highest honor given to high school journalists.

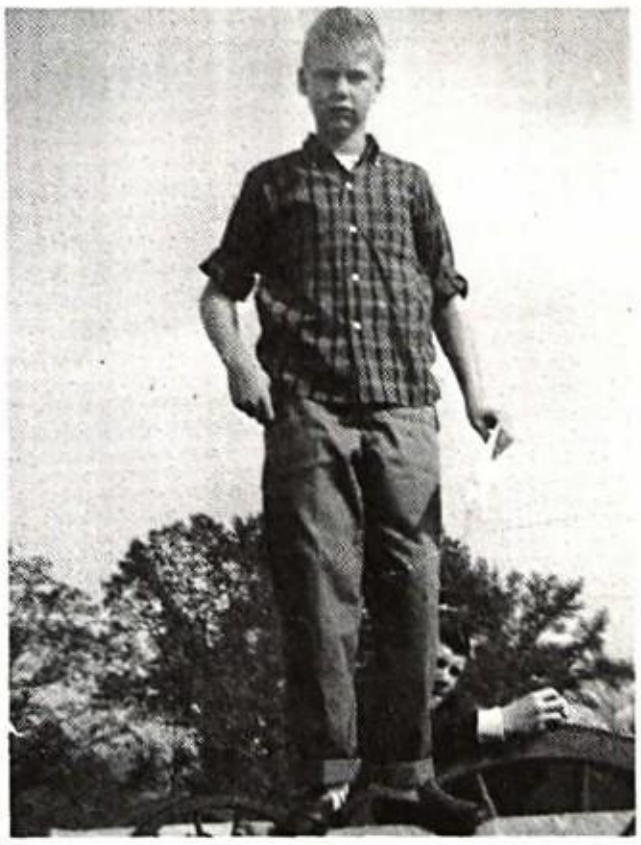


BETH PETTIT

KEY CLUB SWEETHEART

Just like Johnny Orr, always laughing at his own jokes.

How about an apple Adam?



Whaddya mean, "slew-footed"???

... and then, he took her by the hand ...

Well ... er ... uh ... "Hi, Mike."

Want to join our club?

How dry I was.

Go get 'em Nancy!

COLONEL ARCHIBALD

With much pride this year the Key Club added extra enthusiasm to the gym with this 12' by 12' wall hanging of Colonel Archibald. Along with the Colonel is his Rebel flag of bright red and blue colors. This gift from the Key Club has boosted our school spirit immensely.

Our own West Highers met and defeated students from Austin High in WATE TV's Classroom Quiz. The panel, coached by Mrs. Evelyn Cooper, consisted of Robert Hopkins, team captain; Jesse Parker, Jack Whiteman, and alternates were Eddie Knight and Jo Lacey.
